2021 BASEBALL MEDIA GUIDE

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS
Credentials are required for access to the press box for all University of Alabama home baseball games. All credential requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance, to Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office. Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call window (located at Gate 3, adjacent to Bryant Drive and behind home plate) 90 minutes prior to first pitch. Lot D behind the scoreboard in left field and next to the Law School parking lot is the designated lot for media parking. Media members are welcome to park anywhere around The Joe on regular game days but are encouraged to use Lot D when baseball games overlap with other campus events.

INTERVIEWS
Alabama head coach Brad Bohannon and student-athletes are available for interviews in person or, with prior arrangement, by telephone. Alabama practices will be at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Practices are open to members of the media on selected days, with Bohannon and student-athletes available prior to the start of practice, depending upon class schedules, travel or other plans. Media wishing to attend practice or arrange an interview with a student-athlete should contact Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office 48 hours in advance. On game days, only postgame interviews are allowed.

GAME SERVICES
Complete team and individual statistics (box score), quotes and a running play-by-play are provided to the media who cover the Crimson Tide at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Copies of stats, game notes and roster sheets are available in the press box. Postgame interviews with Alabama head coach Brad Bohannon and Alabama student-athletes will take place in the media room located on the first base side following a 10-minute cooling off period upon the conclusion of the games. Ample ethernet outlets and wireless internet access is available inside the pressbox and field level media room for media.

RADIO BROADCASTS
Visiting teams wishing to broadcast games from Sewell-Thomas Stadium are provided access to one phone line. The calls are charged to the visiting radio network. Should an additional line be required, broadcasters must arrange their own hookup through The University of Alabama Telecommunications Office at (205) 348-6300. Visiting radio broadcasters must call in advance or have their media relations office notify Alabama that they will be broadcasting the game and will require credentials.

INTERNET
Information about University of Alabama Athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. Information on the site includes rosters, schedules, results, stats, box scores and biographical information. In addition, members of the media can access helpful information on covering the Tide. From the website, Tide fans also can find a link to listen to Alabama games live via the internet and follow home game action via live stats. Wireless internet is available throughout Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

SOCIAL MEDIA
News, videos and features on the Alabama baseball team can be found on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram by searching for AlabamaBSB.

UA VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION
The University of Alabama, through Crimson Tide Productions (CTP), offers an FTP site that provides up-to-date interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the baseball team is featured in this package. Please call the Athletics Communications Office for more details at (205) 348-6084. During the spring, the baseball team's progress will be covered on "Crimson Tide This Week," a 30-minute weekly regional sports show.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION
Links to download footage for broadcast television use only will be emailed when footage is made available. Throughout the season, video features on the baseball team will be available on RollTide.com. For questions, please contact Christopher England by e-mail at cengland@ia.ua.edu.

RADIO NETWORK
Alabama baseball can be heard on the radio by tuning into one of the 30-plus stations state-wide that are part of the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). Chris Stewart will provide play-by-play for his 20th straight season with Lee Tracey providing the color commentary for all Tide baseball games in 2021.

WHERE LEGENDS ARE MADE

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA®

UA.EDU | #WHERELEGENDSAREMADE

PRESIDENT
DR. STUART R. BELL

On June 18, 2015, The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama named Dr. Stuart R. Bell the University's 29th president. A 30 plus-year veteran of higher education, Dr. Bell had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists.

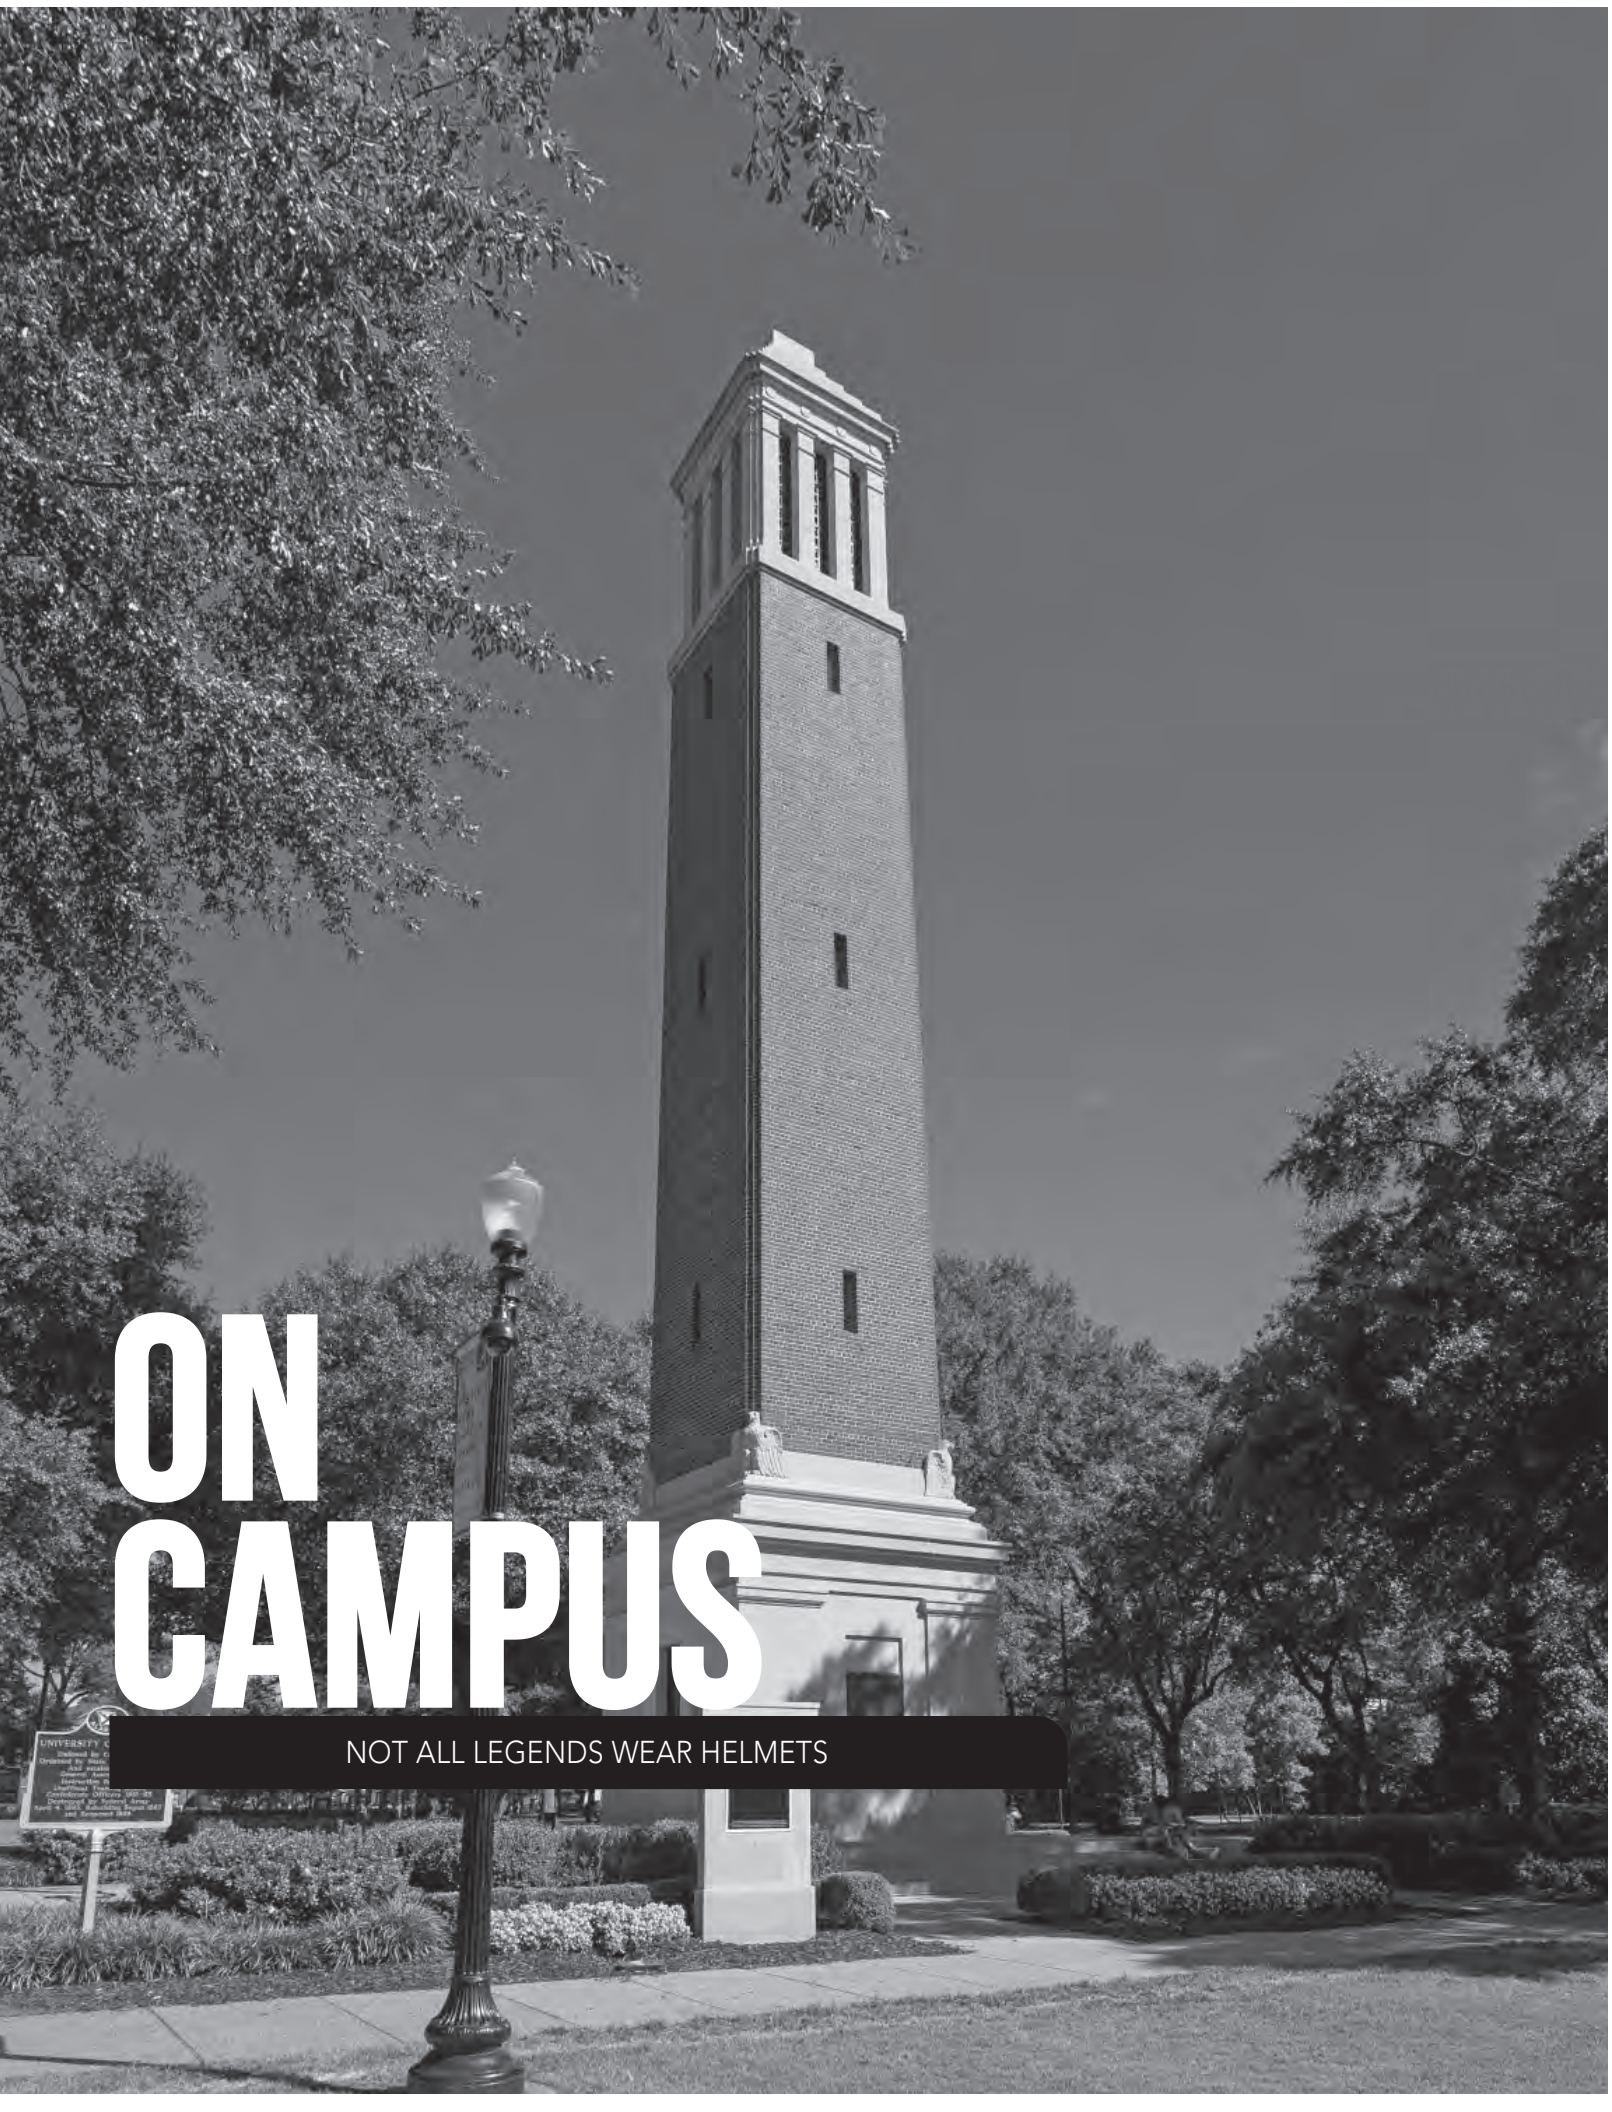
Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University to develop and implement a strategic plan, Advancing the Flagship, which promotes institutional progress with scholarship and teaching, research and creative activity, inclusion and diversity, and the recruitment and retention of highly qualified faculty and staff. Since the plan's launch, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates, has increased faculty headcount to support the University's instruction, research and service goals, and has witnessed the growth of sponsored program awards crucial to the direct learning and experience opportunities for students, and has experienced two consecutive historic fundraising years. New interdisciplinary research centers have also been established and join many other centers on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges. Under Dr. Bell's guidance, UA is steadfastly expanding campus facilities and bolstering academic and co-curricular programs, all of which continue to draw exceptional students to Alabama.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. During his tenure at LSU, Dr. Bell led an expansion of facilities and research and discovery efforts. He was also instrumental in increasing enrollment and retention, and his efforts yielded the largest freshman class in LSU history.

Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. He joined UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the department of mechanical engineering. He was later named department head, where he led the development of academic programs until accepting the Kansas deanship in 2002.

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively. With research interests in combustion engines, he has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen and two delightful granddaughters. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed his example and are engineers. His daughter Stacy is a UA graduate.



ON CAMPUS

NOT ALL LEGENDS WEAR HELMETS

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through our teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, founder and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, "To Kill a Mockingbird"; Winston Groom, "Forrest Gump"; Kathryn Stockett, "The Help"; Mark Childress, "Crazy in Alabama"; and T.S. Stribling, "The Store."

CEO/Chairman of the Board/Executive Chairman/President/Senior Vice President/COO/Senior Director: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin; W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company; Sam DiPiazza, PricewaterhouseCoopers; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources (retired); Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum; Marie Robinson, Michael Kors; Nan Boden, Google.

Pioneers/Founders/Trailblazers: Millard Fuller, Habitat for Humanity; Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia; Joe Gibbs, Golf Channel; John Hendricks, Discovery Channel; Janet Gurwitch, Laura Mercier Cosmetics; Morris Dees, Southern Poverty Law Center; Autherine Lucy Foster; Wendell Hudson.

GREG BYRNE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

With more than 25 years of experience in sports administration, Alabama Director of Athletics Greg Byrne has built an impressive career highlighted by consistent competitive success, innovative strategies, fundraising and a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Soon after taking over as Alabama's 17th Director of Athletics on March 1, 2017, Byrne developed and implemented both The Standard, five-year strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics, and The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focuses on the renovation of facilities and development of infrastructure.

Additionally, The Standard provides benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity, while The Crimson Standard is designed to provide the foundation for future success in all aspects of the collegiate experience.

Under Byrne's leadership, the Crimson Tide has:

• Added high-impact coaches Nate Oates (men's basketball), Brad Bohannon (baseball), Lindsey Devine (volleyball), Glenn Putyrae (rowing) and Coley Stickels (men's and women's swimming & diving) to the Tide's lineup, all five of which made immediate impacts in lifting their respective programs up the national ladder

• Won the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship, earned a place in the CFP Championship Game in 2018 and 2019 and collected Southeastern Conference titles in football (2017), softball (2019) and men's indoor track & field (2018)

• Posted its highest finish in program history in the Learfield Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season, placing 14th

• Brought home individual and relay national titles in gymnastics, swimming & diving and track & field and produced more than 100 All-Americans in 12 different sports

• Earned 42 CoSIDA Academic All-America certificates as well as some of the nation's top academic honors, including the NCAA Top 10 Award, the NCAA Elite 90 Award, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, NCAA and SEC Postgraduate Scholarships

• Earned the H. Boyd McWhorter Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2017 and produced a dozen SEC Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 10 different sports, including a conference-record eight during the 2019-20 academic year

Another hallmark of Byrne's career has been both building and enhancing facilities to championship levels. In his first three years at Alabama, the Tide:

• Raised more than $300 million toward The Crimson Standard capital campaign, over half of the 10-year goal, in a little over two years

• Added a state-of-the-art, first-of-its-kind Sports Science Center featuring advanced treatment services and technology with spaces dedicated to cryotherapy, chiropractic care, stretch, massage, relaxation, recovery and mental health services

• Improved and renovated Bryant-Denny Stadium, including enhancements to all team and recruiting areas, renovations of multiple fan areas, including new Loge and sky boxes and a trio of club areas and an added student plaza

• Renovated and expanded the football team locker room, training room, equipment room and lobby within the Mal Moore Athletic Facility

• Revitalized the Alabama Aquatic Center with a renovation that included the addition of an outdoor pool

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including:

• The United States Olympic & Paralympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council

• The Division I Football Oversight Committee

• The Southeastern Conference Security Committee

• Served as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in 2020

The son of Bill Byrne, whose long and highly successful career included 30 years as an athletics director, Greg Byrne has spent a lifetime around major college athletics. That background has allowed the younger Byrne to consistently develop and grow as a dynamic and impactful administrator with each new role he has undertaken, with career highlights prior to Alabama that include:

• Serving as the University of Arizona's Vice President for Athletics (2010-17) and Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics (2008-10), making Alabama the third NCAA Division I program he has led

• Fostering major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both Arizona and MSU, raising the bar to new heights when it came to student-athlete enhancement and academic success in preparation for life after sports

• More than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities at Arizona

• Serving as the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level while at Mississippi State where he oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen

• Experience in the Southeastern Conference, having spent 2002-05 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising prior to serving as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU from 2006-08 before becoming the Bulldogs' Director of Athletics

• Working at the Fiesta Bowl (1994-95), Oregon (1995-98) and Oregon State (1998-2002)

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

Dr. Jeff Laubenthal (left) and Emeel Salem (right) won the H. Boyd McWhorter Southeastern Conference Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award and a $10,000 postgraduate scholarship. It is the highest academic honor presented by the SEC. Laubenthal also earned the 2014 Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Award for his accomplishments since leaving the University, which includes earning his medical degree from UAB and then becoming a specialist in sports and family medicine at the West Alabama Family Practice Center in Tuscaloosa.

Alabama baseball has produced nine CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 1972, including first-team honorees Jeff Laubenthal (1993), Lance Cormier (right) (2002) and Emeel Salem (2006 & 2007).

The Crimson Tide has produced 14 CoSIDA Academic All-District IV selections since 1993, including two-time honorees Lance Cormier (2001, 2002), Beau Hearod (left) (2002, 2003) and Emeel Salem (2006, 2007). Kolby Robinson was the Crimson Tide's most recent honoree, earning the recognition following the 2020 season.

Emeel Salem is the most decorated student in Alabama baseball history, receiving more than $25,000 in postgraduate scholarships. In addition to the SEC Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, Salem received the 2007 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award and was a two-time SEC Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year (2006, 2007).

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2016
OPENING NIGHT AT THE NEW JOE

Sewell-Thomas Stadium was a hit with fans during its inaugural season in 2016, selling out nine times and welcoming 6,000-plus fans on six separate occasions.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium, located slightly off Paul W. Bryant Drive in the Alabama Athletics Complex, has played host to six NCAA Regionals, six SEC playoff series and a pair of exhibition games with the New York Yankees in 1978 and 1984. The Crimson Tide used its home-field advantage to secure a berth in the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999, winning 13 straight postseason home games in one of the most dominant runs in Crimson Tide baseball history.

Alabama has compiled a 1,282-611-2 (.677) all-time record at Sewell-Thomas Stadium since its move to the current site in 1948. The Tide returned home in 2016 after spending the previous season in Hoover while the stadium underwent a complete renovation. Crimson Tide fans flooded the new stadium in its inaugural season with 133,720 total fans coming through the gates for 31 home matchups. The Tide averaged over 4,000 fans for the first time since 2009 and sold out on nine different occasions during that '16 season.

Over the last 24 years, Alabama has owned a significant advantage at home, winning 78 of its 112* SEC series. Since 1995, Alabama has won 42 of 57* home series against SEC Eastern Division teams.

A series loss to No. 3 Florida at the end of the 2010 season snapped a 14-series win streak versus Eastern Division schools that dated back to 2005. Alabama enters the 2021 season having won 36 of its past 55* SEC home series inside Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

In 2009, Alabama earned a home series win over top-ranked Georgia, adding to the Tide's success at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. The Crimson Tide has won seven of its eight series against the nation's top-ranked team since 1985, with four of those series wins coming in Tuscaloosa. Alabama owns home series wins over Miami (Fla.) (1985), LSU (2007), Mississippi State (2006) and Georgia (2009) when those teams were ranked No. 1 in the country.

The Tide baseball team has been a success at the gate as well, drawing over three million fans since the first stadium expansion in 1991. Over the past 29 years, Alabama has attracted 3,272,143 fans in 917 all-time openings in Tuscaloosa. The Tide ranked second nationally in attendance from 1999-2002 and set a school record with 211,331 fans during the 2000 season, when every home game was sold out.

Frank Thomas Field opened on March 26, 1948, as a 2,000-seat facility that attracted many overflow crowds in the 1950s and 1960s under Coach Tilden "Happy" Campbell and Coach Joe Sewell. The inaugural game was played on March 26, 1948, with the Crimson Tide beating the Bradley Braves 5-2 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Pitcher Clarence Flack delivered the first pitch at 2:02 p.m. that afternoon in the Tide's new baseball home. Dick Dill recorded the first hit at Thomas Field and Jack Rutledge swatted the first home run. Flack was the winning pitcher that afternoon for the Tide. Marvin Blemker also pitched and earned what is known today as a save.

Since the inaugural game in 1948, Sewell-Thomas Stadium has seen plenty of changes. The stadium was renamed Sewell-Thomas Field in 1978, honoring former Alabama football and baseball standout and Major League Hall of Famer Joe Sewell. Alabama played the first night game in school history on March 14, 1981, with a 13-8 victory over Western Kentucky.

The ballpark underwent three major renovations prior to 2015, including changes in 1991, 1999 and 2001.

The original grandstand was completed in time for the 1991 season by Wesley Construction of Talladega, Ala.

N.C. Morgan Construction of Tuscaloosa was responsible for a $4-million expansion project, which was completed prior to the 2001 season, extending the grandstand down the right field line.

The players and coaches also benefited from the 2001 renovations. The Crimson Tide moved into its spacious clubhouse in 2001. The expansion also included three indoor batting cages and pitching machines, a meeting room, training room, equipment room and coaches offices.

The renovation and rebuilding to construct what is now known as "The New Joe" began in the fall of 2014 and lasted until January of 2016, completing a $42.5 million project originally envisioned by the late Mal Moore. The project saved only the cement foundation, while a complete overhaul was made to the rest of the facility. Along with the stadium, a state-of-the-art indoor hitting facility was added along the left field line to allow for practice both in the cages and on the mound year-round.

Alabama's new home returned the right field terrace for fans, while adding chairbacks around the entire lower bowl. On the upper concourse, suites along with the .525 Club host Alabama baseball fans. The .525 Club, similar to the Zone at Bryant-Denny Stadium, was built in honor of the most decorated player in Crimson Tide baseball history, David Magadan. Magadan is Alabama's only Golden Spikes Award winner, which is the premiere award given to college baseball's top player. In that 1983 season, Magadan batted .525, an NCAA record that still stands today.

Along with fan amenities, players are now treated to a new lounge, team meeting room and locker room.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium has cemented itself as one of the premiere baseball facilities not only in the Southeastern Conference, but across all of college baseball. The University of Alabama's rich athletic tradition began with baseball, and a renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium has once again elevated the program to the forefront of athletics at the Capstone.

HEAD COACH BRAD BOHANNON

BRAD BOHANNON

Head Coach — Fourth Year

BERRY COLLEGE, 1998

Brad Bohannon enters his fourth season as the head coach of the Crimson Tide baseball program in 2020-21. The 2015 American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America National Assistant Coach of the Year, Bohannon was named head baseball coach at The University of Alabama by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne on June 1, 2017. Bohannon, who became the 32nd head coach in Crimson Tide baseball history, was formally introduced at a press conference on June 5, 2017.

The Alabama head coach owns a 73-56 (.566) career mark in Tuscaloosa, including an impressive 58-11 (.841) record against non-conference foes and a 54-27 (.667) mark at Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

Known for his recruiting prowess, Bohannon has started to stock the Tide's roster with top recruits and welcomed a second consecutive top-10 class to campus in the Fall of 2019. The newest crop of Crimson Tide players were rated as a top-19 or better class by all major recruiting outlets, peaking as the nation's No. 7 class, according to Collegiate Baseball News. The group was made up of 15 newcomers and was highlighted by five players who were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft but elected to come to the Capstone, including freshmen Myles Austin, Owen Diodati, Antoine Jean and Connor Prielipp in addition to junior Jackson Tate.

Bohannon's recruits continued to have an immediate impact, as reflected by the 2020 team. The group of Diodati, Jean and Prielipp all made significant contributions on the way to a 16-1 overall mark in a season that was ended early. The trio helped Alabama enter Southeastern Conference play ranked for the first time since 2010 and finish the year ranked 18th by CBN in addition to No. 21 in both the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and the USA Today Coaches polls. Diodati led Alabama and tied for third in the SEC in RBI with 22, while ranking seventh in home runs and 11th in the league in slugging at .673, a total that was second among Alabama bats. Jean and Prielipp each posted a team-high tying three wins across their four starts apiece, with Prielipp maintaining a perfect 0.00 ERA that was tied with eight other arms for lowest in the nation (minimum 15.0 innings pitched). Prielipp's impressive start to his freshman campaign earned him both D1Baseball.com's "Top Freshman Pitcher" and Perfect Game USA's "Impact Freshman of the Year" recognition.

Diodati joined fellow freshman Peyton Wilson in accumulating SEC Freshman of the Week accolades, both of which came during the Crimson Tide's 14-game winning streak to start the 2020 season. Alabama's hot start was the second-best winning streak to begin a new season and the longest streak of any kind under Bohannon. It was also the standalone fifth-longest winning stretch at any point in a season in program history. That hot streak featured a program-best 11 wins in the month of February, surpassing the previous total of 10 as part of a 10-0 February in 1997.

The 2020 team also played standout defense once again, a key attribute of Bohannon's Crimson Tide teams. One-year removed from setting the program's season-high mark for fielding percentage, the 2020 squad committed only 10 errors across 648 chances for an SEC-best .985 mark. The Tide's .985 fielding percentage was also ranked ninth nationally at season's end.

In addition to a standout 2019 group, Bohannon's first class at the Capstone in 2018 was ranked No. 10 by CBN, despite just over a year to recruit to UA. That group played a key role in helping Alabama finish 30-26 overall in 2019, an improvement of three wins from 2018 and 11 from the year prior to Bohannon's arrival in 2017. Despite losing a significant amount of its offense from the year prior, the Crimson Tide saw three freshmen and one sophomore combine to contribute more than 30 percent of nearly every offensive statistic, highlighted by the foursome's 26 home runs – 55 percent of the team's total roundtrippers for the year.

The Tide's 2019 overall record featured a 23-3 mark in non-conference pairings and included a 13-1 record in midweek matchups along with a 14-3 record against schools from the state of Alabama. The 23 wins against non-conference opponents were the most by a Crimson Tide team since 2010 and the .885 winning percentage was Alabama's highest since 2002 when the team finished at 24-2 (.923) during the regular season.

During the 2019 campaign, the Crimson Tide went on a 12-game winning streak from Feb. 24 through March 12. The stretch was the longest winning streak under Bohannon at the time and tied for the eighth-longest in program history up to that point. Alabama also claimed a win in the MAX Capital City Classic over Auburn, the team's first victory in the neutral-site pairing with the Tigers since 2014 and just the second for UA in the event's 10-year history.

The biggest improvement by the 2019 squad came in the field. Alabama's defense finished the 2019 season with a .978 fielding percentage to set the program mark for single-season fielding percentage while committing only 44 errors, the fewest by a Crimson Tide defense in 25-plus years. The fielding percentage surpassed the previous record of .976 by the 2015 team and made a significant jump from the Tide's .969 percentage in 2018 that included 65 total errors. Alabama's pitchers increased their strikeout total by 99 in 2019 while the opponent walks and batting average also declined under Bohannon's watch. On offense, Tide hitters contributed 300 runs and walked 285 times while showing marked improvement on the basepaths. UA finished with 60 stolen bases, the most by an Alabama team since 2015.

Bohannon immediately made his mark on the Alabama program in his first year on campus. The 2018 season saw the Crimson Tide get off to a perfect 9-0 start, with Bohannon matching Wallace Wade (1924) for the second-best start to an Alabama head coaching career. Under his direction, Alabama improved its win total by eight from the previous season, including three more victories in SEC play, finishing with a 27-29 overall record and an 8-22 mark in conference action. The 27 wins were punctuated by six victories over top-25 teams, including a series win over then-No. 7 Kentucky.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium also became a favorable spot for the Tide once again in 2018, as UA closed out its home slate with a 22-13 (.629) mark at The Joe compared to a 14-22 record in 2017. Alabama was rarely out of a game with Bohannon at the helm, with 14 losses coming by two runs or less, including five of the Tide's six losses in the month of May – all against SEC opposition.

Bohannon came to Tuscaloosa with 14 years of Southeastern Conference coaching experience after having served as an assistant at Kentucky from 2004-15 and Auburn from 2016-17. Regarded as one of the best recruiters in the nation, he was responsible for signing 14 Wildcat student-athletes that went on to play in the Major Leagues, including 2014 Golden Spikes Award winner A.J. Reed, while his first recruiting class at Auburn was ranked No. 9 by Collegiate Baseball and included six 2017 starters for the Tigers. His recruits at Auburn went on to fill all starting roles on the 2018 team that reached the Gainesville Super Regional, falling one run short of reaching the College World Series.

Dating back to 2008, all of Bohannon's recruiting classes prior to coming to Alabama were ranked in the top 25, including: 2008 (No. 4); 2009 (No. 6); 2010 (No. 16); 2011 (No. 25); 2012 (No. 11); 2013 (No. 25); 2014 (No. 16); 2015 (No. 9); 2016 (No. 9); and 2017 (No. 6). During his time in the collegiate ranks, he has signed recruits from 25 different states and Canada, three of which have gone on to be first-round picks in the MLB Draft.

He played a pivotal role in turning around both Kentucky and Auburn within three years on the job. The Wildcats became the first team in SEC history to go from worst-to-first in only one season, winning 44 games and the program's first league title in 2006, while the Tigers won 12 more games in 2017 than in 2016 and advanced to the NCAA tournament. In addition to improving in the win column, the 2017 squad set the school record for fielding percentage at .975.

While at Kentucky, Bohannon served under two SEC Coach of the Year honorees in John Cohen and Gary Henderson. Along with winning the school's only league title, Bohannon was a part of a trio of record-breaking win seasons, capped off by the 2012 team that won 45 games to set the program mark.

A combined 69 Wildcat student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Baseball draft or signed as a free agent during Bohannon's tenure as recruiting coordinator. He had nine recruits selected in the 2012 draft, which set a new Kentucky record and was second-most in the NCAA. The 2018 MLB Draft saw seven former recruits from Bohannon's time in Lexington chosen to begin their professional careers, four of which went in the top-10 rounds, highlighted by junior right-hander Sean Hjelle, a second-round selection of the San Francisco Giants.

One of Bohannon's most notable recruits was the aforementioned Reed, who was tabbed as the consensus national player of the year in 2014. The 2012 freshman All-American continued to improve each year under Bohannon's watch and went on to lead the NCAA in home runs and slugging percentage as a junior, while leading the SEC in wins by a pitcher.

Prior to his stint at Kentucky, Bohannon worked for two seasons at Wake Forest as an assistant on George Greer's staff. In his two seasons in Winston-Salem, the Demon Deacons advanced to the NCAA Tournament twice and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 2001.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Bohannon also spent the summer of 2005 managing the Southern Ohio Copperheads of the Great Lakes Summer Collegiate League.

Bohannon earned an undergraduate degree in finance in 1998 from Berry College in Georgia. He then went on to earn a master's degree in business administration from Wake Forest in 2002. Bohannon began his collegiate career playing at Vanderbilt and Georgia Tech before finishing up at Berry.

A native of Rome, Ga., Bohannon is married to the former Kim Traylor.

ASSISTANT COACH JASON JACKSON

JASON JACKSON

Assistant Coach — Fourth Year

FLORIDA STATE, 2000

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the assistant coaching ranks of college baseball, Jason Jackson was officially hired to serve as the Crimson Tide's pitching coach on June 13, 2017 and completed his third season in that role following the 2019-20 campaign. Jackson was the second addition to Brad Bohannon's Crimson Tide staff and came to Tuscaloosa after spending 16 years as a Division I assistant, including the previous nine as the pitching coach at Florida Atlantic University.

Despite a shortened campaign in 2020, Jackson guided the UA pitching staff to impressive results. His efforts last season were highlighted by the work he was able to put into developing freshmen Connor Prielipp and Antoine Jean. The duo earned a spot in the starting rotation on the weekends and were successful in those roles, each finishing at 3-0 across four starts apiece. Jean maintained a 3.18 ERA and struck out 17 compared to only three walks, a number that tied for the third-fewest free passes in the SEC among qualifying pitchers. Prielipp, Perfect Game USA's "Impact Freshman of the Year", was masterful in his first season, sporting a perfect 0.00 ERA with 35 strikeouts while holding opposing hitters to an SEC-low .077 average. He also gave up the fewest hits (5) among qualifying pitchers in the conference and was one of only eight pitchers nationally to not allow a run during the season.

The bullpen also contributed in a big way during the 2020 campaign. The Alabama relievers finished a perfect 9-0 with two saves through the Tide's 17 total games. The relief pitchers maintained a 1.62 ERA across 89.0 innings and struck out 103 while holding opposing hitters to a .204 average. Jackson made sure to spread the wealth across his relievers with 13 totals arms getting the call in relief, five of which sported a perfect 0.00 ERA and four others who held a sub-2.00 ERA at season's end.

Jackson has built a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the Southeast and is known for his ability to develop talent on the mound. His efforts on the collegiate level have created the foundation for future professional players, with five of his former student-athletes pitching on MLB rosters in the last six seasons. Across his career, Jackson has coached 22 pitchers that were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, 19 of which were undrafted prior to their time under his direction. He has also helped 36 players sign professional contracts in the last 11 seasons, 28 of which were undrafted out of high school and six that were eventually drafted in the top five rounds of the MLB Draft.

That number is made up of five former Crimson Tide pitchers, including a foursome who heard their names called in the 2019 MLB Draft. The first player selected from the 2019 staff was Deacon Medders. The right-handed reliever recorded an impressive season, holding opposing hitters to a lowly .185 average and striking out 51 across his 32.1 innings of work. That 14.50 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio set a new program record. Medders played a key role on an Alabama pitching staff that finished with 469 strikeouts compared to 183 walks.

Helping to keep the walk total down was Friday night starter Sam Finnerty. The senior allowed 12 free passes in 2019 to tie for the fewest walks allowed by an SEC arm while his 1.46 walks-per-nine innings was second in the conference and ranked 26th nationally at season's end. Finnerty's final campaign featured SEC Co-Pitcher of the Week honors following his performance against South Carolina that saw the Pelham, Ala., native toss a complete game shutout on only 79 pitches. He went on to finish as Alabama's all-time leader for fewest walks per nine innings, giving up only 52 across 226.1 innings for a total of 2.07.

The Tide saw significant improvements in Jackson's first season leading the Alabama pitchers in 2018. The staff sported a 4.10 ERA in 2018 and struck out 370 compared to 195 walks allowed. Alabama's ERA dropped by 0.83 from the previous season while the team's walk total dropped by 65 across 56 contests. In SEC action, Tide pitchers dropped their combined ERA by 0.80 and slashed their walk totals by 61.

Jackson's guidance helped four-year starter Jake Walters return to form in 2018. Walters finished his final year at the Capstone as the team leader in strikeouts at 82, good for 12th in the SEC, and a team-high tying four wins to go with a 3.73 ERA. The senior starter was even better in conference play, maintaining a lowly 2.89 ERA which was fifth-best in the league, and earned SEC Pitcher of the Week honors for his complete game shutout against then-No. 4 Ole Miss in the final start of his Alabama career. Walters went on to be the first member of the Crimson Tide selected in the 2018 MLB Draft, going in the ninth round to the Miami Marlins.

Jackson arrived in Tuscaloosa following his nine seasons at FAU. During his time in Boca Raton, the Owls developed into one of the top baseball programs in the NCAA South-Central region. Jackson joined the FAU staff in 2008 and worked his way to the title of Associate Head Coach by September of 2016. Throughout his nine-year span in Boca Raton, the FAU program captured four conference titles and appeared in four NCAA Regionals, including the 2013 NCAA Chapel Hill Regional, where the Owls defeated top-seeded host North Carolina.

A pair of FAU arms guided by Jackson had their names called in the 2018 MLB Draft with Kyle Marman (13th Round) and Jake Miednik (20th Round) each being selected by the Cleveland Indians. Jackson also had 14 pitchers chosen in Major League Baseball Drafts during his time at FAU, including: Alex House (24th Round, Houston Astros) in 2017; David McKay (14th Round, Kansas City Royals), Colyn O'Connell (26th Round, Detroit Tigers) and Robbie Coursel (26th Round, Pittsburgh Pirates) in 2016; Seth McGarry (8th Round, Pittsburgh Pirates), Kyle Miller (19th Round, Chicago Cubs) and Drew Jackson (35th Round, San Francisco Giants) in 2015; Austin Gomber (4th Round, St. Louis Cardinals) in 2014; Michael Sylvestri (29th Round, Washington Nationals) in 2013; R.J. Alvarez (3rd Round, Los Angeles Angels) and Ryan Garton (34th Round, Tampa Bay Rays) in 2012; Paul Davis (17th Round, San Francisco Giants) in 2011; Ryan Bernal (23rd Round, Milwaukee Brewers) and Mike Gipson (31st Round, New York Yankees) in 2010; and Alex Pepe (44th Round, Texas Rangers) in 2009.

The 2017 season under Jackson's watch saw the Owls rank second in ERA and allow the second-fewest earned runs in the league. FAU's pitchers struck out 444 compared to only 131 walks while holding the opposition to a league-low .262 average. The pitching staff was highlighted by Second Team All-Conference USA selection Cameron Ragsdale.

In 2016, the Owls' staff paced Conference USA with a 3.24 ERA, six shutouts and a 1.21 WHIP, while allowing a league-low for walks, runs and doubles en route to winning the C-USA regular-season championship. The FAU pitchers ranked 14th in the nation in both ERA and walks allowed, and 15th in WHIP. The 2015 slate featured the emergence of several pitchers who gained national traction under Jackson's guidance, including one who received all-conference honors.

As the Owls made their transition into Conference USA in 2014, Jackson's pitchers allowed only nine home runs, the fewest in FAU history and the fewest in C-USA that season. The Owls ranked 19th nationally in strikeout-to-walk ratio at 2.57 – a category in which they led the league in four of his last five seasons thanks to Jackson's guidance. The 2013 team featured FAU closer Hugh Adams, who set the school's season saves record with 18 on the way to recording both the FAU and Sun Belt Conference career saves mark with 31.

In his first three seasons at FAU, Jackson helped guide the Owls to two Sun Belt Conference titles. Jackson tutored starting pitcher Paul Davis and Adams to All-South Central Region selections by the National Baseball Coaches Association of America at the end of the 2011 season.

Before his stint in Boca Raton, he was an assistant at South Alabama (2007-08), Mercer University (2003-06) and North Florida Community College (2002). In all of those stops, Jackson served as a pitching coach, recruiting coordinator or both. He spent 2007 and 2008 as an assistant coach at the University of South Alabama. Two of Jackson's pitchers at USA were selected in the 2008 MLB Draft. Under his direction in 2007, Jaguar pitchers struck out 188 more batters than they walked during the previous season before his arrival.

Jackson began his collegiate coaching career as a pitching coach at North Florida Community College in 2002 before moving to Macon, Ga., in 2003 to serve as an assistant coach at Mercer University. Jackson was essential in establishing a number of new school pitching records during his three seasons with the Bears and was elevated to the program's recruiting coordinator in 2006.

The Crimson Tide's pitching coach earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in physical education in 2000, before going on to obtain a master's degree in sports administration at FSU. A native of Tallahassee, Fla., he and his wife, Katie, have three children, Kinsey, Tyler and Haylee.

ASSISTANT COACH JERRY ZULLI

JERRY ZULLI

Assistant Coach — Fourth Year

NEW ORLEANS, 2002

Jerry Zulli was officially announced as Alabama's hitting coach on June 9, 2017. Boasting nearly 20 years of experience as a collegiate coach, Zulli was the first addition to head coach Brad Bohannon's staff and brings a wealth of experience to UA.

During his 19 total seasons as an assistant coach, Zulli has built a reputation as a tireless recruiter and one of the top hitting coaches in college baseball. Prior to his time in Tuscaloosa, Zulli spent the 2017 season at Louisiana Tech, was with the Missouri staff for the 2016 campaign and was at South Alabama for four seasons from 2011-15. He began his Division I coaching career at Memphis for seven years prior to USA, spanning 2004-10. Zulli got his start in collegiate coaching at Middle Georgia College from 2002-04.

Under Zulli's direction, the Alabama hitters have made marked improvements in the last three seasons, with the 2020 campaign being no different. Despite a shortened season, the Crimson Tide bats racked up 295 total bases and slugged .500 through 17 games. The Tide recorded at least one home run in 13 of 17 games with multiple home runs in five contests on the way to 22 total homers. Those 22 roundtrippers ranked ninth nationally and third in the conference. The Tide averaged 1.29 home runs per game, good for 14th nationally and fifth in the league, and was on-pace for 73 home runs through a full 56-game regular season, a number that would have been the most by any Alabama roster in the BBCOR era.

In addition to the power numbers, Alabama was also a consistent hitting team under Zulli's direction in 2020. The Crimson Tide produced double-digit hit totals in 12 games, including 10 of UA's 13 home matchups. The Tide's steady hitting numbers helped Alabama produce 148 total runs, a number that was fifth in the SEC and 10th nationally at season's end.

The 2019 squad showed improvements in its patience at the plate, drawing 285 total walks to tie for fourth in the SEC during the regular season and finish in the top-25 nationally in that category. Drew Williamson led the way as a freshman, recording 40 free passes to tie for fifth in the SEC. Williamson was part of a collective of three freshmen, including Tyler Ras and T.J. Reeves, along with sophomore Tyler Gentry, that contributed a significant amount of Alabama's offense in 2019. The foursome's biggest mark was made in the home run column where they combined for 55 percent of the Crimson Tide's roundtrippers.

That home run total was boosted significantly by Alabama's record-setting effort at Samford in early April, a 21-2 victory for UA. In that game, the Tide recorded a season-high 19 hits, 13 of which went for extra bases with nine home runs, three doubles and a triple. Eleven players recorded at least one hit on the night with seven players homering – the most home runs by an Alabama roster since 1999. An offensive explosion in the third inning put the Tide over the top with UA scoring 13 runs on 11 hits, two walks and a hit-by-pitch. The 11 hits in the inning were a new program record and included five home runs in the frame, also a program-best total.

The Crimson Tide bats saw significant improvements in Zulli's first season as hitting coach in 2018. Alabama totaled 156 extra-base hits and contributed 310 runs with 270 walks. UA improved in nearly every offensive category under Zulli's direction, increasing in: extra-base hits (+14), doubles (+14), triples (+2), runs (+30) and walks (+63). In SEC play, the Tide hitters collected nearly half of their extra-base hits for the season with 71 (46 percent), including 45 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs while plating 127 total runs.

Zulli's guidance has helped six Alabama players go on to hear their name called in the MLB Draft with Gentry highlighting the group. Despite a five-round draft in 2020 due to a global pandemic, Gentry (3rd Round, Kansas City Royals) became the second-highest drafted Crimson Tide outfielder in program history and was the highest Alabama player selected since the 2015 draft. Joining Gentry was Brett Auerbach, who signed a professional contract with the San Francisco Giants following the draft. In 2019, Morgan McCullough heard his name called (22nd Round, Los Angeles Angels) as part of a five-man draft class for the Tide. A season earlier, Chandler Taylor (10th Round, Houston Astros) was first off the board for UA, followed by Cobie Vance (18th Round, Oakland A's), Jett Manning (20th Round, San Francisco Giants) and Chandler Avant (30th Round, New York Mets). Also taken in that 2018 Draft was the 10th overall selection Travis Swaggerty, who Zulli recruited to South Alabama during his time coaching with the Jaguars.

Prior to his time in Tuscaloosa, Zulli spent one season at Louisiana Tech. His efforts helped the Bulldogs rank in the top three in nearly every offensive category in Conference USA. The offense recorded a .313 average with 203 RBI and 213 runs scored while slugging .475 and sporting a .413 on-base percentage – all totals that ranked second in the league. Zulli coached four hitters to all-conference honors, including a pair of first-teamers in 2017. Brent Diaz, who was one of the Bulldogs' first team all-conference selections, was also tabbed a Third Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball News while earning a spot as a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award.

Before his time at Tech, Zulli was with Missouri for one season in 2016, running the Tigers' offense while serving as recruiting coordinator, infield coach and third base coach. His time in Columbia was highlighted by his recruiting efforts, where he was responsible for adding seven recruits to the Tigers' class, including five of which were selected in the 2016 MLB First-Year Player Draft. In addition to his recruits that were drafted, Zulli also had two of his players from the 2015-16 Missouri roster selected in Ryan Howard (5th Round, San Francisco Giants) and Jake Ring (31st Round, Baltimore Orioles).

Before heading to Columbia, Zulli assembled the 2016 signing class at South Alabama, a collection of talent that helped lead USA to the 2016 Sun Belt regular season co-championship and an NCAA Regional appearance. Three of his four seasons in Mobile featured top-50 recruiting classes, including a 2013 class that was ranked 29th by Collegiate Baseball News. That group played a significant role for the 2015 Jaguar squad that won 37 games and the Sun Belt Conference Championship.

During his four seasons at USA, Zulli coached nine hitters to All-Sun Belt Conference honors, one conference player of the year winner, an All-American and one Freshman All-America selection. His offenses at South Alabama ranked atop the Sun Belt in batting average twice (2012, 2015) and were second in 2013. His teaching made an immediate impact on the Jaguars in his first season, as the offense led the SBC in conference play in seven categories, including: average (.306), hits (321), RBI (184), runs scored (205), total bases (474), on-base (.389) and slugging percentage (.452).

Zulli's longest stint prior to his time with the Crimson Tide came at Memphis, where he spent seven seasons. While with the Tigers, Zulli helped Memphis lead Conference USA in hitting and on-base percentage on three separate occasions, while ranking among the top-five in the league in virtually every hitting metric. He coached eight players to a combined 10 All-Conference USA honors, including Chad Zurcher, who was tabbed the 2011 C-USA Player of the Year and a Third Team All-American after leading the NCAA in average and on-base percentage. He also coached 12 players who were selected in the MLB Draft, including five who were taken in the 2011 draft.

His first season at Memphis saw the Tigers increase their win total by 19 games from the year prior, the second-best turnaround in NCAA history at the time, while the offense finished ranked 30th nationally. His efforts continued to help the Tigers progress, eventually leading Memphis to 36 wins and a postseason berth in 2007 – the program's first NCAA Regional appearance in 13 years.

Zulli began his collegiate coaching career as the recruiting coordinator at Middle Georgia College from 2002-04. The Warriors went 130-51 in his three seasons, including JUCO World Series appearances in 2002 and 2004. His 2002 team finished sixth nationally, while the 2004 squad wrapped up the season fourth in the national polls.

As a player, Zulli began his career at Middle Georgia College for two seasons where he won the Terry Daniels Award and helped MGC to a Region XVII Championship in 1999. He then transferred to the University of New Orleans for his final two years where he lettered each season for the Privateers.

Zulli earned his bachelor's degree from UNO in sports management in 2002. He is married to the former Kristen Bell. The couple has one daughter, Zoe Madelyn, and a son, Dominic Anthony.

CHANDLER AVANT

Student Assistant Coach — First Year

ALABAMA, 2020/CURRENTLY ENROLLED

Chandler Avant returns to The University of Alabama baseball program for the 2020-21 season. He will serve on head coach Brad Bohannon's staff as a Student Assistant Coach for the Crimson Tide.

Avant rejoins the Crimson Tide following a two-year stint in the New York Mets' organization. He was originally drafted by the Mets in the 2018 MLB Draft following a standout playing career at Alabama.

He spent four seasons at the Capstone prior to being drafted. In his senior campaign in 2018, Avant totaled a team-high 22 multi-hit efforts and a team-leading 12 multi-RBI performances while pacing UA in RBI with 38 and ranking second in runs scored with 37. He reached base safely in 47 of 55 games in his senior season, including a streak of 23 consecutive games to begin the 2018 slate.

After suffering a season-ending injury his sophomore year, Avant returned for his junior campaign to start all 54 games and close out the season with a .286 (66-231) average. The junior shortstop teamed up with sophomore second baseman Cobie Vance to turn 31 double plays, a total that tied for 10th in the conference during the regular season, while recording a league-leading 190 assists at short. He wrapped up the regular season tied for 11th in the SEC in doubles with 15, while leading the team in that category. Avant led the Crimson Tide in hits with 60 and recorded at least one hit in all but 11 games on the season.

Avant put together an impressive performance as a sophomore before suffering a season-ending injury midway through the schedule. He improved upon a freshman campaign that saw him start 57 of 59 games and be one of the key contributors for the Crimson Tide on both sides of the ball.

The Troy, Ala., native is on-pace to graduate with his undergraduate degree in human performance exercise science in the fall of 2020.

KYLE CAMERON

Student Assistant Coach — First Year

ALABAMA, 2019/CURRENTLY ENROLLED

Kyle Cameron continues his time with The University of Alabama baseball program for the 2020-21 season. He will serve on head coach Brad Bohannon's staff as a Student Assistant Coach for the Crimson Tide.

Cameron returns to Alabama in a coaching role following a playing career that spanned 2016-20.

In 2020 during the pandemic-shortened season, the right-hander contributed 5.1 innings across three appearances, striking out six total batters. It was his final season as he elected to end his playing career.

He tied for fifth in appearances as a junior with 17 and owned a 3-0 record across 19.2 frames. Cameron accumulated 15 strikeouts compared to just three walks in 2019 and posted a career-high mark for punchouts with six against Jacksonville State that season.

As a redshirt sophomore in 2018, he tied for the team lead with 39.0 innings of relief spanning his 15 appearances that season. His inning total included 27.0 relief innings during SEC play, which paced the Crimson Tide's bullpen.

Cameron pitched in two games in 2017 before his season was cut short due to an illness. It came one-year removed from a solid freshman season in 2016 in which he went 2-2 in 13 appearances and 24.2 innings of work.

During his time as a student-athlete, Cameron contributed numerous community service hours and was also a standout in the classroom. He graduated in December of 2019 with his undergraduate degree in mathematics and was named to the SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll in both 2019 and 2020.

A native of Tuscaloosa, he is currently pursuing his master's degree in higher education administration from UA.

JACK HOEHL

Dir. of Baseball Ops. — Fourth Year

AUBURN, 2012

Jack Hoehl begins his fourth season as the Crimson Tide's Director of Baseball Operations in 2020-21 after joining the staff in July of 2017. Hoehl came to Alabama from the University of Kentucky, where he spent four seasons in the same position.

In his first year with the Wildcats in 2014, Kentucky reached an NCAA Regional. The 2015 campaign saw UK notch a 30-win season, including 14 wins in SEC play. Kentucky rallied for another 30-win season in 2016 on the way to an SEC Tournament appearance. Hoehl coordinated all operations for the Wildcats' postseason run in 2017, when Kentucky finished as a Super Regional participant.

Hoehl arrived in Lexington from Auburn University, where he spent four years as the head student manager for the baseball program, before serving as an event management assistant for the 2012-13 school year. As the event management assistant, Hoehl worked Auburn events for football, men's basketball, baseball, equestrian, track and field, cross country and women's golf. In his final year with the Tigers in 2013, Hoehl assisted with the planning and execution of the 2013 inaugural SEC Equestrian Championship and the 2013 NCAA Women's Golf Regional.

While serving as head student manager for the Tigers during his undergraduate years, Hoehl oversaw all responsibilities for team managers, including scheduling, field preparation, training and game day coordination. He also operated the video analysis system, compiled innovative statistical measurements and assisted the recruiting coordinator in game day preparations and prospect visits. He also was charged with creating and producing motivational and promotional videos for the program while spending the offseason supervising the AU summer baseball camps.

The Issaquah, Wash., native has also served as the coordinator of operations for the BB&T Atlanta Open (men's tennis) and as an operations intern with the Atlanta Tennis Championships.

Hoehl graduated from Auburn in December of 2012 with a degree in supply chain management. He earned his master's in sports management from Alabama in the spring of 2020.

SEAN STRYKER

Athletic Trainer — Fourth Year

PENN STATE, 2012

Sean Stryker joined the Alabama baseball program in the fall of 2017 and begins his fourth season with the Crimson Tide in 2020-21. He came to Tuscaloosa after a two-year stint at Auburn from 2016-17.

Stryker's time at Auburn spanned two seasons under head coach Butch Thompson. During his time on the Plains, the Tigers went from 8-22 in conference and 23-33 overall in 2016 to 37-26 mark, including a 16-14 SEC record on the way to an NCAA Regional appearance in 2017. Stryker's time in Auburn was highlighted by the rehabilitation of third-round pick Keegan Thompson, who came back from Tommy John surgery in 2015 to have a career year in 2017, going 7-4 with a 2.41 ERA across 15 starts as the ace of the Tigers' pitching staff.

Prior to his time at AU, Stryker spent the 2015 season working with head coach Brad Bohannon, then an assistant, at Kentucky as the baseball program's head athletic trainer. During his time in Lexington, Stryker handled all daily evaluation, coordination, implementation, treatment and rehabilitation for the Wildcats' baseball team.

The Oak Ridge, N.J., native began his postgraduate career with the Baltimore Orioles in 2013 and 2014 as a staff athletic trainer. While with the Orioles, Stryker assisted the head and assistant athletic trainers with all duties related to daily prevention, evaluation and treatment of injuries.

Stryker earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Penn State in 2012. He then went on to earn a master's degree in sports medicine from Delaware in 2014. While at Delaware, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, working primarily with the baseball program.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the Southeast Atlantic Trainers' Association, Stryker married the former Samantha Maron of Wharton, N.J. The couple was married in July of 2016.

BRETT PRICE

Strength & Conditioning — Third Year

TROY, 2013

Brett Price is now in his third season with the Alabama baseball program in 2020-21. He came to Tuscaloosa after the spending two years at Auburn from 2016-18. He serves as the Crimson Tide's strength and conditioning coach, bringing his extensive background of training and developing baseball players to the Alabama program.

Prior to his time at Auburn, Price worked for Rapid Sports Performance in Woodstock, Ga. He also worked at Cressey Sports Performance in Jupiter, Fla. At both stops, Price was responsible for developing and implementing training programs for baseball players ranging from the high school to the major league level. Price has also worked as a camp instructor with New Balance Area Code baseball camps across the country. His primary responsibilities included testing and instruction of high school baseball student-athletes on the proper ways to train.

He spent two seasons as the strength and conditioning coach for Troy baseball and softball in the Sun Belt Conference from 2014-15.

During his time with the Trojans, he utilized his skills to put training regiments together that were tailored specifically to both sports. Price also spent time as a strength and conditioning intern with Troy athletics in 2013, as well as two seasons as video coordinator with Troy baseball from 2011-13.

A native of Prattville, Ala., Price holds both of his degrees from Troy University. He graduated with his bachelor's in sport fitness management/business in 2013 and his master's in sport and fitness management/exercise science in 2015. He played two seasons of collegiate baseball at Lawson State Community College in Birmingham, Ala., from 2010-11.

Price is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He is married to the former Brooke Spinks of Tifton, Ga. The two were married in November of 2016.

2020 SEASON REVIEW

SEASON NOTES

• Alabama finished the 2020 season with a 16-1 overall record in a year that was cut short due to the novel coronavirus, or COVID-19. The Crimson Tide and all of college baseball's season was officially put on-hold on Thursday, March 12, one day prior to the start of Southeastern Conference play. The final set of league standings had Alabama tied with Florida and Ole Miss at 16-1 for the best mark.

• The Crimson Tide cracked the top-25 rankings and stayed there for the final three renditions of the polls. Alabama was featured in three separate polls during the 2020 season, including the ones conducted by Collegiate Baseball News, the NCBWA and USA Today. The final set of polls, which were released on or before March 23, saw UA at No. 18 by CBN while ranking the Tide 21st in both the NCBWA and USA Today Coaches polls. The Tide was about to enter SEC play as a ranked team for the first time since 2010.

• Head coach Brad Bohannon led the Crimson Tide for his third season as a collegiate head coach in 2020. In year three under Bohannon, Alabama got off to a 14-game winning streak, the second-best win streak to start a new season and the longest under Bohannon. The 14-game streak was also the standalone fifth-longest winning stretch in Alabama baseball history.

• Alabama's offense posted consistent numbers in 2020. The Crimson Tide bats finished with a .308 average (182-590) and totaled 39 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs, resulting in a .500 team slugging percentage and 295 total bases.

• The offense recorded at least one home run in 13 of 17 games with multiple homers in five of those contests. Alabama's offense also produced double-digit hit totals in 12 games, including 10 of 13 home matchups. Those big offensive numbers led to 148 runs, a total that was fifth in the conference and 10th nationally.

• On the mound, UA maintained a 2.24 ERA (39 ER/157.0 IP) and tossed three shutouts. The Alabama pitchers struck out 185 compared to just 49 walks and held opposing hitters to a .221 average. The Tide's strong pitching effort placed UA in the top half of nearly every pitching metric in the league, including a No. 3 ranking in ERA.

• The 2020 defense was solid once again, sporting a .985 fielding mark through 17 games to lead the SEC and rank ninth in the nation.

• Alabama had two All-America selections by Collegiate Baseball News in freshman Connor Prielipp and senior Brett Auerbach. Prielipp was named a first-team pitcher while Auerbach was a second-team honoree at catcher. The duo are the Tide's first All-America selections since Thomas Burrows was named a third-teamer by the NCBWA in 2016. In addition, Prielipp became the 16th first team All-American in program history and the first Alabama freshman to every earn the distinction.

• Prielipp was rewarded with more accolades a week later when he joined Owen Diodati and Antoine Jean as Freshman All-Americans by CBN. The selections marked the first time Alabama has had three players in the same year named to a Freshman All-America team. The previous high was two, which came in both 1999 and 2013. The group was also the first Freshman All-America selections for the Crimson Tide since Burrows in 2014.

• CBN also named Prielipp one of its four Freshman Player of the Year honorees. Prielipp joined Wade LeBlanc (2004) as the only two players in UA history to earn the distinct honor.

• Tyler Gentry was the fourth pick of the third round (76th overall) in the 2020 MLB First-Year Player Draft, going to the Kansas City Royals. He is now the second-highest drafted Alabama outfielder in program history.

A CLOSER LOOK

• Alabama get off to a hot start in the new season and showed what looked to be significant improvements in both the type of athlete and style of play that was on display in 2020 compared to the seasons prior.

• Those improvements earned Alabama a spot in the polls for the final three releases before the season's cancelation. The Crimson Tide was ranked in three separate polls during 2020, including ones administered by Collegiate Baseball News, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) and USA Today. The final set of rankings, released on or before March 23, placed UA at No. 18 by CBN and ranked 21st by both the NCBWA and the USA Today Coaches polls.

• Alabama was set to enter Southeastern Conference play ranked in the top-25 for the first time since 2010.

• Although the Crimson Tide did not reach SEC action, UA was able to dominate its non-conference foes once again, going 16-1 heading into league play. The 16-1 mark pushed UA to 58-11 (.841) against non-SEC opponents under head coach Brad Bohannon.

• Sewell-Thomas Stadium continued to be a favorable spot for Alabama. The 2020 team finished 12-1 (.923) at The Joe to move the Tide's record to 54-27 (.618) under Bohannon. That mark is an improvement from the lowly 14-22 (.388) mark in 2017, the year prior to Bohannon's arrival.

• Alabama saw positive strides from its hitters and pitchers during the shortened 2020 campaign.

• The Crimson Tide offense posted consistent numbers in 2020. Alabama's bats finished with a .308 average (182-590) and totaled 39 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs, resulting in a .500 team slugging percentage and 295 total bases.

• Alabama recorded at least one home run in 13 of 17 games, including 10 of 13 home matchups. Those big offensive numbers led to 148 runs, a total that was fifth in the conference and 10th nationally.

• On the mound, the Tide maintained a 2.24 ERA (39 ER/157.0 IP) and tossed three shutouts. The Alabama pitchers posted 185 strikeouts and issued only 49 walks while holding opposing hitters to a .221 average. The strong showing placed UA in the top half of nearly every pitching metric in the league, including the SEC's third-lowest ERA.

• The Crimson Tide's pitching effort was led by its bullpen, which held a perfect 9-0 record and notched a pair of saves through 17 games. The relievers held a 1.62 ERA (16 ER/89.0 IP) and limited the opposition to a .204 average. Alabama's bullpen also struck out 103 compared to 26 walks for a 4.0 strikeout-to-walk ratio. That bullpen effort was split across 13 arms, five of which held a perfect 0.00 ERA with four other relievers holding a sub-2.00 ERA at season's end.

• Defensively, the Crimson Tide was solid once again, sporting a .985 fielding percentage to lead the SEC and rank ninth nationally. Alabama committed only 10 errors to tie for the fewest in the conference.

YEAR THREE UNDER BRAD BOHANNON

• Head coach Brad Bohannon completed his third season at the helm of the Crimson Tide baseball program after being named the 32nd head coach in Alabama baseball history on June 1, 2017.

• Bohannon brought 14 years of Southeastern Conference coaching experience to Alabama after having served as an assistant at Kentucky from 2004-15 and, most recently, Auburn from 2016-17.

• UA's 2020 roster featured a highly regarded recruiting class to join the 2019 group that was also ranked in the top-25.

• The newest crop of players that arrived in the Fall of 2019 were rated as a top-19 or better class by all major recruiting outlets, peaking as the nation's No. 7 class, according to Collegiate Baseball News.

• The group was made up of 15 newcomers and was highlighted by five players who were selected in the 2019 MLB Draft but elected to come to the Capstone, including freshmen Myles Austin, Owen Diodati, Antoine Jean and Connor Prielipp in addition to junior Jackson Tate.

• Alabama's newest group joined the previous crop of freshmen and junior college transfers that was selected as a top-25 class by three separate outlets. The 2019 Crimson Tide class was No. 23 by Perfect Game USA while earning a No. 15 ranking by Baseball America. The Tide's class was ranked highest by CBN, with the outlet tabbing the '19 group at No. 10.

• The 2020 group was highlighted by Diodati, Jean and Prielipp, who all made significant contributions on the way to the Tide's 16-1 overall mark. The trio helped UA enter SEC play ranked for the first time since 2010 and finish the year ranked 18th by CBN in addition to No. 21 in both the NCBWA and USA Today Coaches polls.

• Diodati led Alabama and tied for third in the SEC in RBI with 22, while ranking seventh in home runs and 11th in the league in slugging at .673, a percentage that was second among Alabama bats.

• Jean and Prielipp each posted a team-high tying three wins across their four starts apiece, with Prielipp maintaining a perfect 0.00 ERA that was tied with eighth other arms for the lowest in the nation (minimum 15.0 innings pitched). Prielipp's impressive start to his freshman campaign earned him both D1Baseball.com's "Top Freshman Pitcher" and PG USA's "Impact Freshman of the Year" recognition.

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

• Although shortened, Alabama's offense showed that it could post big numbers on a consistent basis in 2020.

• The Crimson Tide bats totaled 39 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs, resulting in a .500 team slugging percentage and 295 total bases.

• Tide hitters recorded at least one home run in 13 of 17 games with multiple homers in five of those contests. Alabama's offense also produced double-digit hit totals in 12 games, including 10 of 13 at home.

• The offense produced 148 runs through 17 contests, a number that ranked fifth in the conference and 10th nationally.

• Alabama's homer run total finished ninth nationally and third in the Southeastern Conference. The Tide was also 14th in Division I and third in the SEC in doubles. Those numbers contributed to the .500 team slugging mark that was 12th-best nationally and third in the conference.

• Heading into SEC play, Alabama was averaging 1.29 home runs per game. That total was 14th nationally and fifth in the SEC. It also had the Tide on-pace for 73 home runs by season's end. That total would have been the most by any UA roster in the BBCOR era and would have been close to eclipsing the program's top-10 ranks for homers in a season.

GOOD WITH THE GLOVE...ONCE AGAIN

• Through 17 games, the Tide committed 10 errors across 648 chances for a .985 mark. That fielding percentage led the SEC and was ninth in the nation. Alabama's 10 errors were also tied for the fewest in the SEC.

• In addition, the Crimson Tide turned 14 double plays, two ahead of second-place Auburn and Arkansas in that category. The Tide duo of sophomore Drew Williamson and freshman Jim Jarvis were tied for No. 1 and 5 in the SEC for fielding double plays, as Williamson was a part of 11 while Jarvis turned nine. Jarvis also tied for fourth in assists at 42 while shortstop Kolby Robinson was tied for 12th with 36 assists during his senior year.

• Alabama finished the 2019 campaign with a .978 fielding percentage to set the Crimson Tide's program mark for single-season fielding percentage. Alabama also committed only 44 errors, its fewest in at least 25-plus years.

• That .978 mark surpassed the previous record of .976 by the 2015 team. It was also a significant improvement from the 2018 team that finished at .969 with 65 total errors.

ALABAMA IN THE PEN

• Alabama's pitching got off to a great start in 2020, highlighted by the relief effort from the Tide's bullpen.

• The Tide's relief arms held a perfect 9-0 record and recorded a pair of saves through 17 games.

• The relievers maintained a 1.62 ERA (16 ER/89.0 IP) and limited opposing hitters to a .204 average. Alabama's bullpen also struck out 103 compared to 26 walks for a 4.0 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

• In total, 13 Alabama pitchers saw action out of the pen in 2020. Five of those 13 pitchers sported a perfect 0.00 ERA in relief with four other relievers holding a sub-2.00 ERA.

• The Tide spread the wealth in the bullpen with 11 of the 13 relievers making at least three appearances. Landon Green led the team with six relief outings followed by a group of four relievers who totaled five appearances apiece. Included in that group was senior Casey Cobb, who paced the bullpen with 12.1 innings of relief.

THE 14-GAME WINNING STREAK

• Alabama began the 2020 campaign on a 14-game winning streak before falling in a one-run game with Lipscomb on March 7.

• The Crimson Tide's hot start was the second-best winning streak to begin a new season. The program's all-time mark for wins to begin a year is 15 which was accomplished by the 1997 team.

• The 14-game winning streak is the longest under head coach Brad Bohannon. The 2019 edition of the Tide went on a 12-game streak from Feb. 24 through March 12. The most recent streak prior to last year's 12-game run had been a 16-game winning streak by the 1999 team.

• Alabama's 14-game winning streak is the standalone fifth-longest in program history. The second-longest streak at any point in a season in UA history is 15 games, which last occurred in that 1997 campaign. The program's all-time mark for consecutive wins is 16 games from May 7 to June 10 of 1999.

• The Tide's hot stretch featured 11 wins in the month of February. Those 11 victories are the most by any Crimson Tide squad in program history. The previous top mark was a 10-0 month of February in 1997.

NON-CONFERENCE DOMINANCE

• Alabama wrapped up 2020 at 16-1 in non-conference play. Under head coach Brad Bohannon, the Crimson Tide is an impressive 58-11 (.841) in non-conference action.

• That 16-1 mark included three-game series sweeps of Northeastern, UNLV and Harvard along with single victories against Alabama State, Middle Tennessee, UT-Martin, South Alabama and UAB. Alabama's lone loss came against Lipscomb with the Tide still claiming the 2-1 series win over the Bisons.

• The hot start was one year removed from a 2019 season that saw Alabama finish with a dominant 23-3 (.885) record against non-conference opposition.

• The 23 wins against non-conference opposition were the most by a Crimson Tide team since 27 in 2010 while the .885 winning percentage was Alabama's highest since 2002 when the team finished at .923 with a 24-2 non-conference record during the regular season. That '02 squad finished the year at .861 (31-5) overall following postseason play.

• Alabama went 7-0-1 in non-conference series (two-or-more games) in 2019 and added single wins against South Dakota State, Middle Tennessee, Maine and then-No. 12 Auburn in the Capital City Classic.

• The most significant difference for the 2019 squad against non-conference opponents came on the hill. Alabama's arms finished with a 2.00 ERA (53 ER/239.0 IP) and limited opponents to a .208 average. The Tide also struck out 246 while allowing only 69 walks across 26 games.

• In those 26 contests, UA outscored the opposition by a wide margin of 195-67 (7.5-2.6 runs per game). Contributing to that high run total was the Tide offense that saw eight of nine starters bat better than .300 with three above .350.

ALL-AMERICA HONORS FOR THE TIDE

• Alabama freshman pitcher Connor Prielipp and senior catcher Brett Auerbach were selected as All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball News. Prielipp was a first-teamer while Auerbach was tabbed to the outlet's second team.

• Prielipp became the 16th first team All-American in Alabama history and the only Crimson Tide freshman to ever be named to an All-America first team. He was UA's latest first-team selection since Taylor Dugas in 2010.

• The duo was the Crimson Tide's first All-America selections since Thomas Burrows was named a third-teamer by the NCBWA in 2016.

FRESHMAN EARN ALL-AMERICA ACCOLADES

• The Alabama trio of Owen Diodati, Antoine Jean and Connor Prielipp were selected as Freshman All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball News.

• In addition, Prielipp was selected as one of CBN's four National Freshman Players of the Year. His Freshman Player of the Year recognition paired with Wade LeBlanc (2004) as the only two players in program history to earn the distinction.

• The selections marked the first time in Alabama history that three players in the same year earned Freshman All-America status. The previous high was two, which came in both 1999 and 2013.

• The trio were the first Freshman All-America selections for the Tide since Thomas Burrows was named to both the CBN and NCBWA Freshman All-America rosters in 2014.

GENTRY GOES TO THE ROYALS IN 2020 MLB DRAFT

• Alabama outfielder Tyler Gentry was selected by the Kansas City Royals in the 2020 MLB First-Year Player Draft from June 10-11. The annual event was shortened to five rounds this year, in part due to the pandemic.

• The junior was the fourth pick of the third round (76th overall) in the draft, making him the second-highest drafted Crimson Tide outfielder in program history, trailing only Joe Vitiello who was selected in the first round of the 1991 draft. Gentry was also the highest Alabama player taken since Mikey White went in the second round of the 2015 Draft.

• Gentry's selection marked the 42nd consecutive season that the Tide had at least one player taken in the draft.

• In total, Alabama has produced 159 all-time draft picks (149 players) since the event's inception in 1966 and has had at least one player selected in 49 of the 55 MLB drafts overall.

• Brett Auerbach (San Francisco Giants) and Casey Cobb (Boston Red Sox) each signed free agent contracts following the draft,

Tyler Gentry (3rd Round | 76 Overall | Kansas City Royals)

- The Crimson Tide's every day right fielder each of his two seasons, starting 72 of 73 games played
- Batted .335 with 18 doubles and 17 home runs while contributing 63 RBI and 56 career runs scored
- Led UA in nearly every offensive statistic in both 2019 and 2020
- Finished his 2020 campaign ranked in the top 10 of multiple categories in the SEC, including: on-base percentage (.554 | 2nd), average (.429 | 4th), slugging (.750 | 5th), RBI (21 | T6th), total bases (42 | T8th), hits (24 | T9th) and runs (19 | T10th)
- Paced UA in average (.310), hits (65), homers (13), RBI (42), slugging (.552) and total bases (116) in 2019
- Tied for seventh in home runs and ranked 14th in total bases among league bats during the 2019 season
- A standout in the classroom, he was named to the 2019 and 2020 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll

WILSON NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK - MARCH 2

• Freshman Peyton Wilson contributed in a big way for UA from Feb. 25-March 1, earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors on March 2.

• Wilson made three starts across Alabama's five games with one at catcher and two in center field.

• During the week-long stretch, he tied for second in the SEC in average (.571) and runs (8) while ranking third in hits (8).

• He led all Alabama hitters in average and tied for the team lead in hits and double (2) during the five games.

• His week was highlighted by a perfect 4-for-4 effort against Middle Tennessee, adding four runs scored.

• Wilson then led in runs scored (3) while tying for the team lead in hits (3) in the series opener with Harvard.

DIODATI SELECTED AS SEC CO-FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK - FEB. 17

• Freshman Owen Diodati put together a huge opening weekend for the Crimson Tide, earning himself SEC Co-Freshman of the Week honors from the league office on Feb. 17.

• Diodati led UA in nearly offensive category in Alabama's sweep of Northeastern on Opening Weekend.

• He recorded six hits, five of which went for extra-bases, including a double, a triple and three home runs. He also contributed a team-high eight RBI, producing three apiece in the bookend games of the series.

• The freshman added six runs scored, four of which came on Opening Day, to go with four walks. He slugged 2.000 over the three-day stretch and maintained a .769 on-base percentage.

• His first series began with a two-homer performance in the season opener. He capped the weekend with a perfect 3-for-3 afternoon, falling a double short of the cycle.

• Diodati is the first Alabama freshman to earn the honor since Chandler Taylor in 2016.

PRESEASON RECOGNITION FROM THE SEC, NCBWA FOR GENTRY

• Junior outfielder Tyler Gentry was tabbed to the 2020 Preseason All-SEC Second Team as an outfielder, selected by the league coaches.

• He was also named a third team preseason All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA).

• The preseason All-SEC honor was UA's first since 2018 (Cobie Vance) while the All-America nod was the Tide's first since 2015 when Mikey White was named a preseason second-teamer by D1Baseball.com and a third-teamer by Perfect Game USA.

2020 FINAL ALABAMA OVERALL STATISTICS

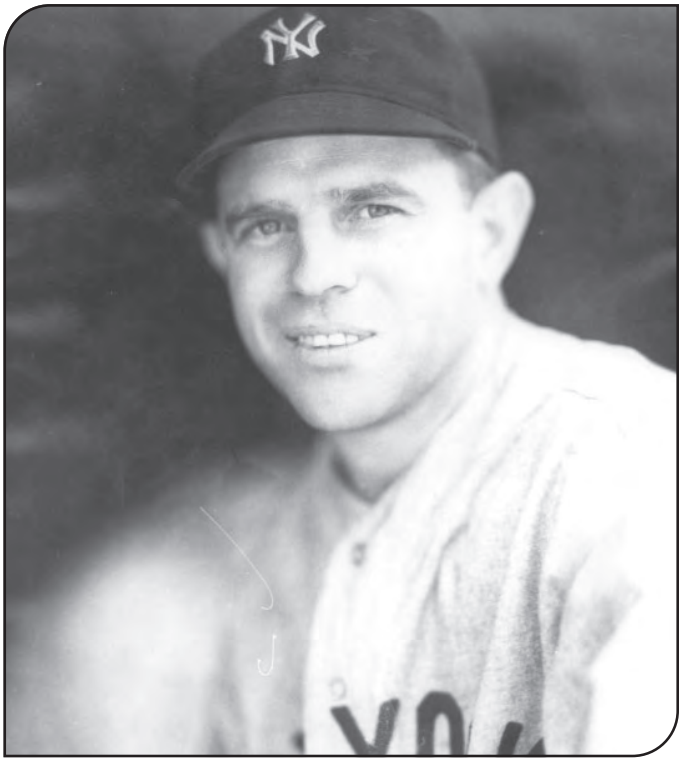
1977 MLB HALL OF FAME MEMBER - JOE SEWELL



Joe Sewell had a knack for this "funny game."

That knack has made him the only player in Crimson Tide baseball annals to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in the quaint little town of Cooperstown, N.Y.

The only other Crimson Tider in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is New York Yankees legendary broadcaster Mel Allen, who along with Florida alum Red Barber earned induction in 1978 as the inaugural winners of the Ford C. Frick Award.

Inducted in the Hall of Fame in 1977, Sewell's career spanned 14 seasons with the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees.

From the moment he left the Capstone as student body president in 1919, Sewell's major league career was the stuff dreams are made of. After leading the Crimson Tide to the 1919 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship, Sewell was selected by the Indians and signed with the New Orleans team in the Southern Association.

The Titus, Ala., native made his Major League debut with the Indians in the heat of a 1920 pennant drive, after their everyday shortstop was killed after being hit with a submarine pitch. Sewell rose to the challenge and batted .329 over the final 22 games of the season to help the Indians clinch the American League pennant.

Alongside future Hall of Famers Stanley Coveleski, Tris Speaker and Bill Wambsganss, Sewell and the Indians disposed of the Brooklyn Robins in seven games, taking the 1920 series five games to two. Sewell batted only .174 (4-23) in his first trip to the fall classic, but was solid in the field in all seven games, helping the Indians lay claim to the World Series title.

He played 11 years for the Indians before joining the New York Yankees roster for the final three years of his outstanding Major League career.

Sewell once again tasted greatness with Yankees in 1932, when New York beat the Chicago Cubs in the most talked about World Series in history. The Yankees won 107 games in 1932 and swept the Cubs in the best-of-seven fall classic. The Yankees took the first two games at Yankee Stadium (12-6 and 5-2) before moving to Wrigley Field for games three and four.

In game three, Babe Ruth, a teammate and close friend of Sewell, made baseball history. Ruth's fifth inning at-bat off Chicago hurler Charley Root is still the most talked about home run in baseball history.

Ruth earlier had slugged a three-run home run in the first inning and legend has it that, after taking two called strikes in his third at-bat, the Sultan of Swat pointed to center field before he slammed a two-run home run over the head of Johnny Moore. It has become the most debated home run in the history of the fall classic.

The Yankees won the game 7-5 and then closed out the Cubs the following day (13-6) to win the 1932 World Championship. In a lineup filled with Hall of Famers from Frank Crosetti to Bill Dickey to Lou Gehrig to Ruth, Sewell batted .333 (5-15) in the four games with six runs scored and two RBI. He was on base when Ruth slugged his first-inning home run in game three and witnessed the famed "called shot" from the Yankees dugout.

Sewell also was a close friend and roommate with Yankee legend Lou Gehrig, whose career tragically was cut short due to ALS in the 1930s.

In 14 Major League seasons, Sewell batted .312 (2,226-7,132) with 1,051 career RBI. He played in nearly 2,000 career games and logged over 7,000 at-bats for the Indians and Yankees. He also had more than 2,000 hits, 1,000 runs scored and 1,000 RBI.

Sewell hit .300 or better in 10 of his 14 seasons in the big leagues. His best season was 1923 when he batted .353 (195-553) with the Indians. He collected a career-high 204 hits with the Indians in 1925 when he posted a .336 (204-608) batting average.

An outstanding fielder, Sewell led the American League in putouts and assists four times in his career and led the league in fielding percentage three times.

A "singles hitter" overshadowed by some the game's greatest sluggers, Sewell set five major league records that continue to pass the test of time: fewest strikeouts in a season (3, two times); consecutive games without a strikeout (115); consecutive at-bats without a strikeout (437); most seasons of 500 or more at-bats with fewer than four strikeouts (4); and fewest career strikeouts (114).

Throughout his sparkling 14-year career at the pinnacle of the baseball profession, Sewell turned in numbers that simply are amazing to the average baseball fan. For instance, his 114 career strikeouts in more than 7,000 career at-bats averages out to one strikeout for every 63 at-bats, and one strikeout in every 16 games played.

And still years later, in 1964 at age 66, Sewell, a Tuscaloosa resident and businessman since his college days, took over the Crimson Tide's baseball program as head coach. In his seven-year tenure, Alabama compiled a 114-99 (.535) record, which included winning the 1968 SEC Championship and a trip to the NCAA District III Playoffs in North Carolina.

Sewell was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in 1977, along with Ernie Banks, Martin Dihigo, Pop Lloyd, Al Lopez and Amos Rusie. He is one of 11 Alabama natives to be enshrined in Cooperstown, joining fellow legends Hank Aaron (Mobile), Monte Irvin (Columbia), Heinie Manush (Tuscumbia), Willie Mays (Westfield), Willie McCovey (Mobile), Satchel Paige (Mobile), Ozzie Smith (Mobile), Don Sutton (Clio), Billy Williams (Whistler) and Early Wynn (Hartford).

Sewell died on March 6, 1990, in Mobile, Ala., after a lengthy illness. At the time of his death he was the oldest living baseball Hall of Famer at 91 years of age.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD - MEL ALLEN

Mel Allen is as much a part of the national pastime as the squeeze play, hot dogs, and pennants flapping in the breeze. And he never played in the big leagues. Instead he broadcasted the game, and that allowed the fans to play the games over and over in their minds. His voice is the one that millions of fans associate with the game of baseball.

Born Melvin Allen Israel, the son of a traveling textile representative in Birmingham, and raised all over Alabama, he was a spindly student manager for the Crimson Tide football and baseball teams when he received his chance to announce games. Allen's first assignment behind the microphone was doing play-by-play of a football game between Tulane and Alabama, his beloved alma mater.

While a student at Alabama, Allen sold shoes, coached speech and debate, and ultimately earned his law degree before winning an audition to announce in New York for CBS Radio. After the audition with CBS in 1936, Allen broadcast his first World Series for the network in 1938. He joined the Yankees the following year and stayed for 25 more, delighting millions of baseball fans with his warm sign-on – "Hello, everybody!" – and his trademark phrases "How about that!" and "Going, going, gone!"

Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees from 1939 to 1964, covering the team that aroused more passion than any other in baseball. With his vivid phrases and pleasing Alabama drawl, he called many of the great events in the game: the Babe's good-bye, Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series, Mantle's heroics, Maris' record-shattering summer (1961), Casey's barbs and Yogi's convoluted pronouncements.

"Mel Allen meant as much to Yankee tradition as legends like Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio and Mantle," Yankees owner George Steinbrenner said. "He was the voice of the Yankees."

In an era before television, millions of radio listeners around the nation envisioned the game through the descriptions of this thoughtful and articulate Alabamian who prided himself on being both a reporter and storyteller.

Allen later moved to the Milwaukee Braves in 1965, went on to broadcast for the Cleveland Indians and handled a variety of assignments for NBC. He returned as the voice of the New York Yankees in 1970s and began a 19-year association with This Week in Baseball as host of the popular television program.

Former Crimson Tide baseball manager and public address announcer Mel Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees for 39 years. Allen served as emcee for "Babe Ruth Day" at Yankee Stadium.

In his 58 years of sports broadcasting, Allen did it all. He called thousands of Yankees games, 24 Major League Baseball World Series, 20 All-Star Games, 14 Rose Bowls, five Orange Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and more than 2,000 newsreels.

A winner of numerous industry, listener and viewer awards, Allen is a member of National Baseball Hall of Fame (as the first Ford C. Frick winner in 1978), National (USA) Sportswriters and Broadcasters Hall of Fame (1972), the American Sportscasters Association Hall of Fame (1985), the Radio Hall of Fame (1988), the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Alabama Communication Hall of Fame (1995) and was enshrined to Monument Park at Yankee Stadium (July 25, 1999).

Decades ago, Allen sat next to a weakened Lou Gehrig in the dugout before a game. Gehrig soon would die from the disease that forced his emotional, early farewell from the game.

"Mel, sometimes your descriptions of the game are the only thing that keeps me going," Gehrig said.

Allen went into the tunnel and cried like a baby.

How about that?

1983 GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD/BASEBALL AMERICA PLAYER OF THE YEAR - DAVID MAGADAN

Never before or since has an Alabama baseball player had a season at the plate like David Magadan did in 1983.

The Alabama junior shattered school and Southeastern Conference records that still stand today in becoming the 1983 Golden Spikes Award winner, presented annually by USA Baseball.

Magadan, who concluded the 1983 season with six school career records (at-bats, runs, hits, RBI, doubles, total bases and batting average), was a major contributor in Alabama's national runner-up spot to Texas at the College World Series. He paced the Crimson Tide to winning the NCAA South Regional and Southeastern Conference titles en route to a 46-11 record, one the most successful campaigns in school history.

After batting an incredible nation-leading .525 (114-217) as a junior, Magadan was voted the 1983 College "Player of the Year" by Baseball America and he also led the team in hits (114), doubles (31), total bases (180) and slugging percentage (.829) during his record-setting campaign.

Magadan was a consensus first team All-America selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association, the Sporting News, Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association during the 1983 season and was a three-time All-SEC selection at the Capstone.

Two years earlier, Magadan hit safely in his initial 27 games as a freshman in 1981 and as a junior, went an incredible 10-for-11 (.909) at the 1983 SEC Tournament in Starkville, Miss., which included a five-hit game (2 doubles, 2 HRs) against Florida, en route to being named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. He also set the CWS record by hitting safely in his first eight trips to the plate and wound up batting .550 (11-20) at Omaha in five games.

After his freshman season at Alabama, Magadan led his American Legion team to the 1981 American Legion World Series title and was named the "Sports Club Amateur of the Year" when Tampa Post 248 won the national title. Magadan also is recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his amateur accomplishments in 1981.

The Tampa native played in 162 games during his Alabama career and batted .439 (268-610) with 64 doubles, 14 home runs and 188 RBI. His .439 batting average still ranks among the leaders in Division I baseball and remains atop the SEC record books as the highest career average in league history.

Magadan still holds Alabama records for single-season batting average (.525, 1983), career batting average (.439, 1981-83), single-season hits (114, 1983), single season doubles (31, 1983) and single-season RBI (95, 1983). He also set the Alabama standards for highest batting average for a freshman (.399, 1981) and junior (.525, 1983) and most RBI (95, 1983) by a junior and shares the single-game record with five hits, a feat he accomplished an Alabama record three times against Alabama Christian (April 16, 1983), Florida (May 13, 1983) and Arizona State (June 4, 1983).

First drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of Tampa's Jesuit High School, Magadan then was one of six Alabama players selected in the 1983 MLB Draft. He signed with the New York Mets and was assigned to the Columbia, S.C. Mets in the class A South Atlantic League in his first pro ball assignment. In that first summer, Magadan batted .336 with three home runs and 32 RBI.

Magadan made his Major League debut for the Mets against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 17, 1986, as the starting first baseman at Shea Stadium. In the game, he went 3-for-4 with two RBI, including the game-winner in the eighth inning that clinched the National League Eastern Division title for the eventual world champions.

In 1990, Magadan finished third in the National League batting race with a career-best .328 (148-451) average. He played 16 years in the Major Leagues before retiring from the game after the 2001 season. In those 16 seasons, Magadan hit .288 (1,197-4,159) with 42 home runs and 495 RBI in 1,582 career big-league games.

After his playing days, Magadan was named the roving minor league hitting instructor by the San Diego Padres, before being promoted as the big-league hitting coach prior to the 2003 season. After four seasons with the Padres, Magadan was named the hitting coach for the Boston Red Sox in 2007. After working six years in Boston, Magadan began working as the hitting instructor for the Texas Rangers in 2013, a title that he maintained through the 2015 Major League Baseball season. In the fall of 2015, Magadan became the hitting coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks through the 2018 campaign. He was then hired by the Colorado Rockies to be their hitting coach in the winter of 2018, a title which he still holds today.

In June of 2010, Magadan joined former Alabama All-American and head coach Joe Sewell as the only Tide players to be inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame. In 2014, he was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Alabama Crimson Tide representatives Eli Gold and Major Ogilvie. In the fall of 2015, the .525 Club at the newly renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium was named in honor of his average during Magadan's historic 1983 season. Magadan was in attendance for the Crimson Tide's first ever alumni event, in which the room was officially opened.

1999 DICK HOWSER TROPHY FINALIST - ANDY PHILLIPS

Andy Phillips is one of the most decorated players in the history of Alabama baseball.

A member of coach Jim Wells' first signing class, Philips rewrote the Alabama record books and in the process took the Crimson Tide baseball program to new heights with three trips to the College World Series in his four-year career.

That impact was not limited to the Crimson Tide baseball family, as his talents were recognized nationally by writers, broadcasters and professional scouts.

A consensus All-America selection as a senior, Phillips was named the 1999 National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association District III Player of the Year and finished runner up to Baylor's Jason Jennings for the 1999 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association to the best player in college baseball.

Florida State's Marshall McDougal, Cal State Fullerton's Spencer Oborn and Rice's Mario Ramos also were finalists for the Howser Trophy, named for the former Florida State infielder and Kansas City Royals manager.

Phillips also was named first team All-American by the NCBWA as well as being a member of the 1999 NCBWA Super All-American squad.

In addition to the NCBWA honors, Phillips was named first team All-American by College Baseball Insider and was a third team All-America selection by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Demopolis, Ala., native wrapped up his Alabama career as the school record-holder in eight career statistical categories, including most games played (244), games started (224), at-bats (905), runs scored (222), total hits (322), home runs (61), RBI (224) and total bases (590). He also ranked second in career doubles (63) and triples (11), and was third in assists (537) and 10th in walks (86) when his career was complete.

As a senior in 1999, Phillips set the standard of excellence for Crimson Tide baseball. He played in 64 games and batted .398 (103-259) with 22 home runs and 66 RBI. He added 71 runs scored, 22 doubles, 30 walks and 16 stolen bases for an Alabama team that captured the SEC Tournament Championship and finished third at the College World Series.

Phillips also set Alabama single-season records for total bases (203) and collected the most home runs (22) and RBI (66) by a shortstop at Alabama.

The former Tide shortstop also set the SEC record with a 36-game hitting streak during his final season at Alabama, breaking the old standard of 33 games set by LSU second baseman Todd Walker (1993). During his record-setting hitting streak, Phillips batted .407 (66-162) with 17 home runs and 45 RBI.

In 1998, Phillips was named the Sporting News National Player of the Week (April 1, 1998), after hitting .500 (8-16) with six runs scored, three home runs and 11 RBI in wins over Southern Miss and Mississippi State.

Phillips was just as successful off the field, earning his degree from Alabama in 1999, while being an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is an accomplished singer. Twice during his career, Phillips sang the National Anthem prior to a Crimson Tide home game at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. A three-time All-SEC selection, Phillips also was named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team for his many hours of community service.

Following an 11-year professional baseball career, which included five seasons in Major League Baseball, Phillips returned to Alabama as the hitting and infield coach, beginning with the 2011 season and ending in 2016 after head coach Mitch Gaspard's retirement. His MLB debut came in 2004 for the New York Yankees, and he homered on the first pitch he saw as a Major League player. Phillips played for the Yankees from 2004-07, before playing his final season in the majors with the Cincinnati Reds in 2008. Prior to returning to Alabama, he played two seasons in the Nippon Professional League in Japan.

2002 JOHNNY BENCH AWARD - JEREMY BROWN

The most decorated catcher in University of Alabama baseball history, Jeremy Brown was named the winner of the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, presented annually by the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission to the nation's best catcher.

"The Greater Wichita Sports Commission would like to congratulate all of the award finalists and especially Jeremy Brown, the 2002 Johnny Bench National Collegiate Catcher of the Year," Bob Hanson, President and CEO of the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, said. "Jeremy represents The University of Alabama in a remarkable manner."

Brown edged out Southern California junior Alberto Concepcion and University of Houston junior Chris Snyder to win the 2002 award.

Brown said upon receiving the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, "I'd like to thank my family and my coaches for all of their support over the past four years. It's truly an honor to receive this award from the best catcher of all time, Mr. Johnny Bench."

It is the highest honor awarded to an Alabama baseball player since David Magadan earned the 1983 Golden Spikes Award, presented annually to the best player in college baseball. The Golden Spikes award is the baseball equivalent to college football's Heisman Trophy award.

Bench, a native of Oklahoma City, and Major League Baseball Hall of Famer, was on hand to present the award to Brown. Bench was the starting catcher for the Cincinnati Reds' back-to-back World Series championship teams in 1975 and 1976.

Former Los Angeles Dodger first baseman Steve Garvey delivered the keynote address to more than 350 people in attendance at the Grand Eagle Ballroom at the downtown Wichita Hyatt Regency hotel. The banquet recognizes the achievements and dedication of local youth, high school, college and professional coaches in the Wichita area. Alabama head coach Jim Wells was also in attendance to see his All-American catcher receive the award.

A two-year starter behind the plate for Alabama, Brown was a runner-up to Baylor's Kelly Shoppach in the 2001 Johnny Bench Award voting. Brown is one of five Southeastern Conference catchers to win the Johnny Bench Award, joining LSU's Brad Cresse, who won the inaugural award in 2000, Mississippi State's Ed Easley in 2007, Florida's Mike Zunino in 2012 and Ole Miss' Stuart Turner the following year in 2013.

A native of Hueytown, Ala., Brown appeared in 66 games for Alabama as a senior and hit a .320 average (70-219) with 11 home runs and 64 RBI. He also set the Alabama single-season record with 69 walks, surpassing the previous total of 66 walks held by Bret Elbin in 1983.

Brown made only one error for Alabama in his final 119 games at the Capstone. He set the Tide single-season record with a 1.000 fielding percentage in 2001 and made only one error in 2002.

Brown was second in the SEC with seven pickoffs and ranked among the league leaders by throwing out 43 percent of his attempted base stealers.

A first-round pick of the Oakland Athletics, Brown concluded his career at Alabama as the all-time leader for games played (251), games started (251), runs scored (244), walks (207) and putouts (1,660). He still remains as the only player in SEC history to collect 300 career hits (307) and 200 career walks (207).

Named a 2002 second team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, Brown also was a first team All-SEC pick for the second consecutive year. He was also chosen as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and was a finalist for the 2002 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce and Verizon.

2003 DISTRICT III PLAYER OF THE YEAR - BEAU HEAROD

Beau Hearod went where few University of Alabama players had gone before. The slugger from Jennings, La., had a phenomenal 2003 season and in the process led the Southeastern Conference in both home runs (20) and RBI (82) in his final campaign with the Crimson Tide.

A first team All-SEC selection, Hearod became the first Alabama player to lead the SEC in home runs since Doug Duke smacked a league-leading 27 four-baggers as a junior in 1986. Hearod became the fourth player in school history to lead the league in home runs, joining Stan Moss (7, 1968), Butch Hobson (13, 1973) and Duke (1986) as the league's home run champ. Hearod also was the first Crimson Tide slugger to lead the league in RBI since Duke's league-best 82 in 1986.

After putting up those staggering numbers during the rugged 62-game season, which included 34 games against SEC teams, Hearod was tabbed as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, marking the second consecutive year and the third time since the inception of the award in 1999 that an Alabama player was bestowed the top in District III.

Former Alabama catcher Jeremy Brown, a first-round selection by the Oakland Athletics in 2002 MLB Draft and the 2002 Johnny Bench award winner, was named the 2002 District III Player of the Year following an outstanding senior season. Andy Phillips, the school's all-time home runs leader, won the inaugural District III Player of the Year award in 1999 and was one of the three finalists for the prestigious Dick Howser Trophy, presented to the NCBWA Player of the Year.

Other 2003 district winners included Boston College pitcher Chris Lambert (District I), St. John's outfielder Mike Rozema (District II), South Carolina lefty David Marchbanks (District IV), Ohio State pitcher Scott Lewis (District V), Nebraska first baseman Matt Hooper (District VI), Tulane first baseman and left hand pitcher Michael Aubrey (District VII) Southern University shortstop Rickie Weeks (District VII), New Mexico first baseman Billy Belcher (District VIII) and Arizona State shortstop Dustin Pedroia (District IX).

From the ranks of these 10 District winners, Southern University's Rickie Weeks was named the winner of the 2003 Dick Howser Trophy.

As a senior, Hearod started all 62 games and batted .346 (80-231) with 20 home runs and 82 RBI. He was also named the Most Valuable Player of the 2003 SEC Tournament at the Hoover Met, leading the Crimson Tide to its second straight postseason title and sixth under coach Jim Wells.

Hearod ranked ninth nationally in home runs (20) and 17th nationally with 0.32 home runs per game. He was sixth in total RBI and ninth with 1.32 RBI per game. He also led the SEC and ranked 27th nationally with a whopping .719 slugging percentage.

In his three-year career with Alabama, Hearod played in 177 games and batted .327 (210-643) with 40 home runs and 191 RBI. He also totaled 141 runs scored, 43 doubles, five triples, 61 walks and a .595 career slugging mark.

He wrapped up his Alabama career with five grand slams, one shy of the school, SEC and NCAA record set by the Tide's Mike Pitisci in 1984.

Wade LeBlanc had a freshman season like no other in the 100-plus year history of The University of Alabama baseball program.

The talented freshman left-hander racked up just about every postseason award available as he became the first rookie in Crimson Tide baseball history to earn National and SEC Freshman of the Year honors.

LeBlanc was tabbed the 2004 National Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper after being named the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year at the conclusion of the regular season.

LeBlanc's turning point in the season was the back-to-back wins against No. 6 LSU and 10th-ranked Florida in early May. He beat LSU, 8-2, on May 1 in Baton Rouge and then shut out the high-powered Gators in Tuscaloosa on May 7, allowing only four hits and striking out nine batters.

"I guess the LSU and Florida games back-to-back really told me what kind of season I was having," LeBlanc said. "This whole season was crazy. I never thought I would have a year like this and be named National and SEC Freshman of the Year. This is a great honor."

LeBlanc finished his outstanding freshman season by setting Alabama freshman records for innings pitched (112.2), strikeouts (98) and complete games (8) while tying the Alabama freshman record with eight wins.

In 16 games, including 15 starts, LeBlanc posted an 8-4 record and 2.08 ERA. He worked 112.2 innings and allowed 87 hits, 37 runs and 26 earned runs, with 26 walks and 98 strikeouts. LeBlanc also threw eight complete games and pitched three shutouts in 2004.

In addition to his freshman records, LeBlanc also ranks among the school's top 10 single-season leaders in several categories. His eight complete games tied Gene Lary (1955) for second place on the school's single-season list. The three shutouts matched Mike Innes (1968) and Drew Blocker (1974) for third-place on the single-season shutout charts. LeBlanc's 112.2 innings pitched tied Dean Hayes (1983) for seventh place on the single-season innings, while the 98 strikeouts tied Jarrod Kingrey (1998) and Steve Shoemaker (1994) for 10th place in Alabama history.

LeBlanc was tabbed a third team All-American by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America. He was the only freshman named to the 2004 Baseball America All-America team. LeBlanc also was named to the 2004 SEC All-Freshman team and was a second team All-SEC selection as voted on by the league's 12 head coaches.

SEBaseball.com tabbed him as the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year as well as a first team All-SEC selection. He also was selected to the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-South Region team.

LeBlanc was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the second round of the 2006 MLB Amateur Draft. He made his Major League debut on Sept. 8, 2008 for the Padres. He went on to play for multiple teams throughout his 12-year career, spending four seasons with San Diego (2008-11) in addition to seeing time with the Miami Marlins (2012-13), Houston Astros (2013), Los Angeles Angels (2014), New York Yankees (2014), Seattle Mariners (2016, 2018-19), Pittsburgh Pirates (2016-17) and Baltimore Orioles (2020).

Following the 2020 campaign, LeBlanc was 46-47 with a 4.55 ERA (446 ER/882.1 IP) for his career. He made 240 appearances with 120 starts while striking out 642 batters.

2009 SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR - KENT MATTHES

Alabama right fielder Kent Matthes wrapped up a remarkable senior season by winning Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors and being tabbed a consensus All-American. Matthes is the first Alabama player to win SEC Player of the Year honors since the league began presenting the award in 1993.

"Kent Matthes had a great year and deserves this honor," former Alabama head coach Jim Wells said. "It has been great to sit in the dugout and watch him do the things he has done this year. He has had a great year and put up some incredible numbers. You read sometimes about guys having years like this, but he usually isn't on your team. This year we have that player and it has been fun watching him on and off the field."

Matthes was also named first team All-American by every baseball publication, including the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), Rivals and PING.

"It is a great honor to be recognized by the best college baseball league with all the talented players we have in the SEC," Matthes said. "It is an honor to be named SEC Player of the Year and to be able to accomplish the feat as a senior. This has been an incredible season and I am happy to be a part of this team.

"I was looking to take advantage of my senior year and make the most of it," said Matthes. "I worked hard in the offseason with Dax (Norris), got hot early, hit a lot of home runs and they kept coming. I tried to stay focused on winning each game and not the stats."

The senior was named the 2009 NCBWA District III Player of the Year, was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and a member of the ABCA All-South Region team. The Orlando, Fla., native hit .358 with 28 home runs and 81 RBI for the Crimson Tide. He led the SEC in home runs, RBI, total bases (174) and slugging percentage (.883). He was also third in runs scored (65) and sixth in hitting.

Matthes set the Alabama single-season record with 28 home runs, which tied for the national home run lead with Middle Tennessee State's Bryce Brentz. Matthes is the fifth NCAA statistical national champion in school history. He broke the Alabama single-season home run record with his 28th home run against South Carolina on May 20 at the SEC Tournament. He slugged his 27th home run of the season in the Tide's regular-season finale at Auburn on May 16 to tie Doug Duke's record set in 1986.

The 2009 home run barrage from Matthes included four multi-home run games and one walkoff home run while 16 of his 28 home runs tied the game or gave Alabama the lead (10 go-ahead home runs). He also had nine game-winning RBI in 2009.

Matthes set the Alabama record with a home run in six straight games and twice was named National and SEC Player of the Week. He hit for the cycle on Feb. 24 against Nicholls State and followed with a walkoff 10th inning home run the next day.

Drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the fourth round of the 2009 MLB Amateur Draft, Matthes was named the 2011 California League's Most Valuable Player for the Class A Modesto Nuts after an outstanding season at the plate. He finished the 2011 season with a .334 average, 23 home runs, 39 doubles and 95 RBI.

Matthes spent the 2012 season in Double-A, playing for the Tulsa Drillers where he hit .214 with 17 home runs, 18 doubles and 40 RBI. In 2013, Matthes opened the year in Tulsa, before being called up to Triple-A Colorado Springs for the final 47 games of the season. With the Triple-A Sky Sox, Matthes hit .297 with 11 home runs and 31 RBI.

After being claimed off waivers by the Oakland A's, the former Tide standout spent 2014 split between Double-A Midland and Triple-A Sacramento where he hit .232 (92-396) with 26 doubles, 16 home runs and 72 RBI while adding 57 runs.

 - season was shortened to 17 games due to the coronavirus pandemic*

Despite a shortened season, Connor Prielipp put together one of the most impressive performances over the first month of a career in the history of The University of Alabama baseball program.

The freshman left-hander showed promise through his first Fall on campus and that early success translated across the Spring and eventually into the regular season. Prielipp cruised through the first month of game action, going 3-0 with a perfect 0.00 ERA across 21.0 innings of work. He did not allow a run and gave up just five hits while limiting opposing hitters to a lowly .077 average. Prielipp also issued six walks compared to an impressive 35 strikeouts, a total that led Alabama. He was set to make his first career start in Southeastern Conference play on Friday, March 13, but the season came to an abrupt halt one day prior on Thursday, March 12. Along with all other winter and spring sports, the 2020 baseball season was eventually canceled due to the coronavirus pandemic.

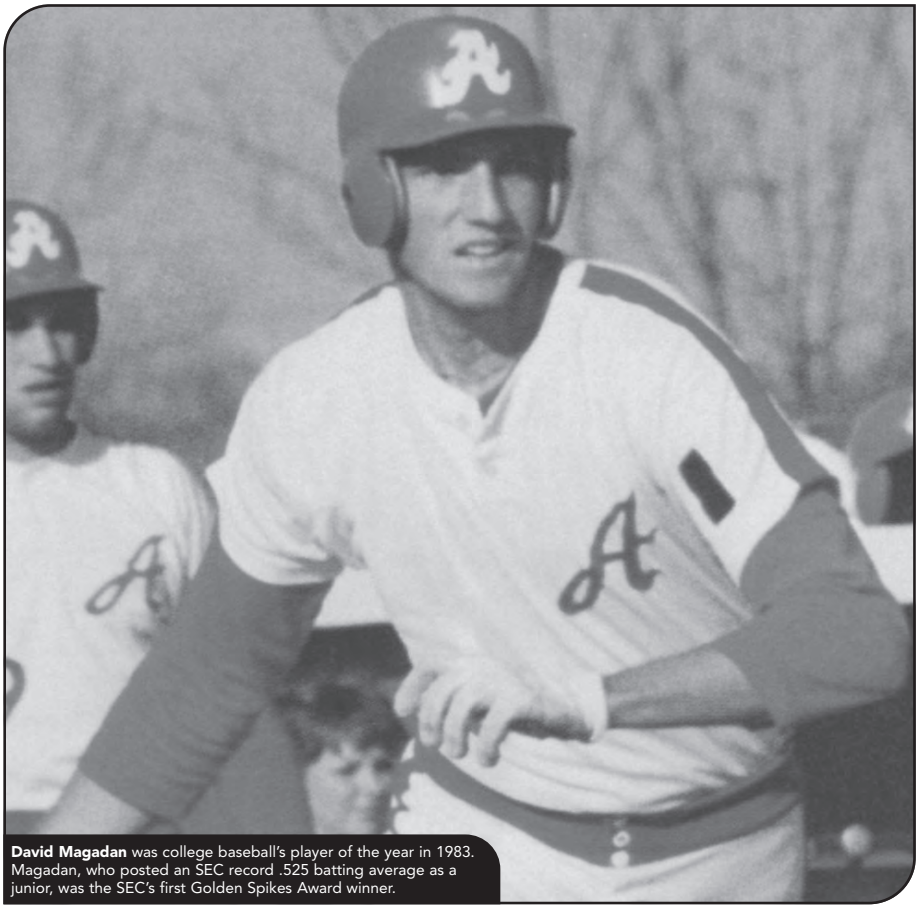
Once the final stats were compiled, Prielipp's numbers became that much more impressive. He finished as one of only eight arms in Division I baseball with a perfect 0.00 ERA (minimum 15.0 IP). Prielipp was also atop the league-low columns for opponent batting average along with hits and runs allowed, while ranking third in the SEC for strikeouts.

Prielipp's outstanding start got the attention of numerous national outlets, including postseason All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper. He was selected as a First Team All-American by CBN, making him the 16th first team All-American in Alabama history and the only freshman to ever be named to an All-America first team in Crimson Tide annals.

In addition to his first-team accolades, CBN also selected Prielipp as a Freshman All-American and named him as one of its four National Freshman of the Year honorees, pairing him with Wade LeBlanc as the only two freshmen in UA history to earn the prestigious recognition.

The accolades would keep coming, as D1Baseball.com named Prielipp its 'Top Freshman Pitcher' while Perfect Game USA labeled the Tomah, Wis., native as its 'Impact Freshman of the Year'.

HONORS AND AWARDS



David Magadan was college baseball's player of the year in 1983. Magadan, who posted an SEC record .525 batting average as a junior, was the SEC's first Golden Spikes Award winner.

Jim Wells and Skip Bertman combined to win 12 SEC Tournament championships and lead all SEC coaches with six tournament titles each.

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY:

Alabama has compiled a 57-54 (.514) all-time SEC Tournament record, dating back to its first appearance in the 1950 SEC Playoffs, a best-of-five series win over Kentucky, the SEC Eastern Division champion. The Crimson Tide is 49-43 (.533) since the league moved to an SEC Tournament format in 1977.

In SEC Tournament games at the Hoover Met (formerly Regions Park), Alabama is 37-25 (.597) with four SEC postseason titles in 1996, 1999, 2002 and 2003.

The Crimson Tide is 7-1 in eight SEC Tournament championship games, winning the title against five different teams. Following a 4-3 loss to LSU in the 2010 SEC championship game, Alabama is 3-1 in the deciding game against the Tigers. Alabama defeated LSU to win the SEC Tournament championship in 1995, 1997 and 2002. The Tide also has championship game wins over Mississippi State (1993), Florida (1996), Arkansas (1999) and South Carolina (2002).

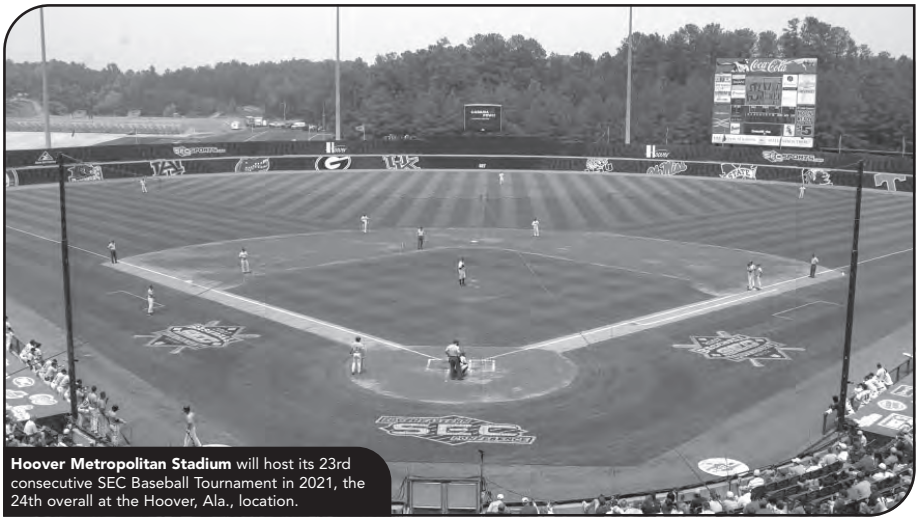
SEC BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament will be held at Hoover Metropolitan Stadium from May 25-30, 2021. This is the 23rd consecutive year the tournament has been played in Hoover and the 24th time overall.

The 2021 SEC Baseball Tournament will host 12 teams for the fourth straight year, after increasing from 10 to 12 in 2013. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single-elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday, before returning to single-elimination play on Saturday and Sunday. A total of 17 games will be played over the six days.

The 12 teams will be seeded 1-12, with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another bye later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western divisions, plus 10 at-large bids, seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

The tournament began in 1977 with the first and second-place teams from the Eastern and Western divisions meeting at campus sites to determine the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. In 1986, the SEC abandoned divisional play and the top four teams in the league standings qualified for the postseason tournament at campus sites. The 1990 SEC Tournament was played at the Hoover Met, the first off-campus tournament in league history.



Hoover Metropolitan Stadium will host its 23rd consecutive SEC Baseball Tournament in 2021, the 24th overall at the Hoover, Ala., location.

The format remained the same until the league expanded to 12 teams in 1992, adding Arkansas and South Carolina. In 1992, the league went back to divisional play and invited the top four teams from each division to the SEC Tournament at the Superdome in New Orleans.

The SEC instituted another change in 1993, as the league had two separate divisional tournaments over the next three years. The overall SEC champion and NCAA automatic qualifier was the team with the best conference combined winning percentage from the regular season and postseason tournaments. Alabama won the SEC Western Division tournament in Starkville in 1995, the first of three straight tournament titles for the Tide.

The 1996 and 1997 tournaments were eight-team events in Hoover and Columbus, Ga., respectively but those events introduced one-game play-ins. Prior to the expansion to 10 teams in 2012, an eight-team double-elimination format was used for 14 years (1998-2011).

Alabama is second all-time with seven SEC Tournament titles, most recently in 2003. LSU leads the way with 12 SEC Tournament championships, including back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010. Overall, nine of the 14 SEC teams have won at least one SEC Tournament crown since 1977.

After Rob Childress led Texas A&M to the tournament title in 2016, 20 different head coaches had won at least one SEC Tournament championship. Former Alabama head coach Jim Wells and former LSU coach Skip Bertman have the most all time with six championships, while former Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk won five tournament titles. Florida has the most coaches to win the SEC Tournament with four, including Jay Bergman (1981), Jack Rhine (1982), Joe Arnold (1984, 1988 and 1991) and Kevin O'Sullivan (2011, 2015).

Alabama has been involved in the two largest championship game crowds in tournament history. The Tide's 9-3 win over Arkansas in the 1999 SEC Championship game on May 23 drew 16,165 fans, the largest crowd in tournament history and second-largest crowd in Hoover Met annals. The Tide's 6-2 win over South Carolina on May 26, 2002, drew 13,367 fans, the second-largest for a title game in tournament lore.

The Hoover Met seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate more than 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005, and then a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $4.5 million renovation project. A new video scoreboard was added in 2008. Most recently, a state-of-the-art convention center along with practice fields were added to the grounds in 2019.

The SEC will keep its conference baseball tournament in suburban Birmingham for the 2021 year and could stretch its stay to five.

FORMAT AND SEEDING

The 12-team tournament will consist of two six-team brackets. The two bracket winners will play in a single championship game on Sunday. Seeding for the SEC Tournament is based on each team's winning percentage during the SEC regular season. The division champions shall be automatically seeded No. 1 and No. 2, based on winning percentage in conference competition. The rest shall be seeded No. 3 through No. 12 based on conference winning percentage. Once a team is seeded, it shall maintain that same seeded position throughout the tournament.

TIE-BREAKERS

Two-Team Tie

When two teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken):

1. Win-loss results of head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. If they are divisional opponents:
   a. Won-lost percentage within their division (over the 15-game SEC division schedule).
   b. Won-lost percentage of the two teams versus the No. 1 team in their division (and proceeding through the No. 6 team, if necessary).
3. If two teams are not divisional opponents:
   a. Win-loss record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed using common opponents only (and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary).
4. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more)

When three or more teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken).

Note: If the three tied teams have three different records against each other, they shall be seeded in best-percentage order. Otherwise, once the three-team tie is broken, the two-team tie-breaker will be used.

1. If all three teams are common opponents: Total won-lost percentage of games played among the tied teams.
2. Won-lost percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary, using common opponents only.
3. If three or more teams still are tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw.

 – The 2020 season was canceled due to a global pandemic caused by the novel coronavirus (COVID-19). The Southeastern Conference schools were officially put on hold on Thursday, March 12, one day prior to the start of league play. The final set of SEC standings had Alabama tied with Florida and Ole Miss for the league-best mark.*

CRIMSON TIDE SPORTS NETWORK

ON THE RADIO

Jim Carabin
General Manager, CTSN

Chris Stewart
Play-By-Play

Roger Hoover
Play-by-Play/Color

All the exciting action of Alabama baseball can be heard throughout the 2021 season on the Crimson Tide Sports Network.

The baseball network is a service of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing, which is a property of Learfield Communications. An industry leader for more than four decades, Learfield has a deep presence in the college athletics landscape nationwide. It manages the multimedia and sponsorship rights for 125 collegiate institutions, conferences and arenas, and supports athletic departments at all competitive levels as title sponsor of the prestigious Learfield Directors' Cup. Learfield also provides its collegiate partners access to professional concessions and ticket sales; licensing and trademark consulting; digital and social platform expertise; and venue and technology systems through its affiliated companies. For more information, visit learfield.com. Jim Carabin serves as CTSM's general manager.

For the 23rd consecutive season, CTSM will carry the Crimson Tide baseball games on a state-wide network. The games also are available on the internet and select Southeastern Conference games will be aired on XM Satellite Radio. The network's flagship stations are in Birmingham and Tuscaloosa. Birmingham affiliates include WENN-FM (100.1), WENN-AM (1320) and WBHJ-HD3 (95.7-3). The Tuscaloosa affiliates are TIDE-FM (100.9) and WTUG-HD2 (100.9).

Alabama baseball is also the topic of conversation each Monday night from 6-7 p.m. on the popular weekly call-in show "Hey, Coach!" Stewart hosts the program and chats with head coach Brad Bohannon and Alabama players each Monday night throughout the season. The show airs live from Baumhower's Victory Grille in Tuscaloosa. Fans can join the program by calling toll free (877) 202.2262.

The Crimson Tide's unique 30-minute weekly sports magazine television program, "TIDETV This Week," shows highlights, interviews and previews on the Crimson Tide baseball team all season.

Chris Stewart and Roger Hoover will call all the exciting action of Alabama baseball this season on the 30-plus station network.

A veteran play-by-play voice, Stewart enters his 22nd season on the Tide baseball broadcasts. He is a five-time (2004, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2016) Alabama Sportscaster of the Year recipient by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA).

Stewart is in his 33rd year in broadcasting, with the 2020-21 men's basketball season being his 19th as the play-by-play announcer for the Crimson Tide Sports Network. In addition to his role as the voice of Crimson Tide basketball, Stewart also serves as an in-booth reporter for CTSN's radio coverage of Crimson Tide football and as the television host of "The Nick Saban Show".

Prior to taking over the Alabama basketball play-by-play job, the Fairfield, Ala., native spent eight seasons as the radio announcer for Birmingham Southern College.

Stewart has done additional work for CSS, ESPN Regional, and Fox Sports South.

A 1992 graduate of the University of Montevallo, Stewart was honored with the school's 2009 Alumni Achievement Award. He is married to the former Christy Carmichael and has three children – Anne, Parker and Hudson.

Roger Hoover is in his first year with the Alabama baseball radio broadcast although he has contributed play-by-play for the Crimson Tide Sports Network since 2014. Hoover's baseball experience includes five seasons calling Miami Marlins spring training baseball on the Marlins Radio Network. He called Minor League Baseball games for 12 years, including eight as the radio and television voice for the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp in the Marlins organization. Hoover was recognized as the 2018 Southern League Broadcaster of the Year.

Hoover and his wife Lanzi reside in Mountain Brook, Ala. The couple was married in September of 2020.
